P R E F A C E.

 M O N G the several Instructors of Youth in this Nation, many have for a long Time complained, that the two Rudiments of the Latin Tongue commonly taught in our Schools, are many ways insufficient in respect to the End proposed by them: That the one is written wholly in Latin, the very Language it is designed to teach; that the other is defective particularly in the Syntax; and that the Rules of both are often obscure and intricate, and sometimes false and erroneous. Whereupon some knowing Masters of that Profession, by their repeated Sollicitations, prevailed with me to undertake the compiling of a new Rudiments, which they conceived might in a great Measure be freed from the Faults and Defects of the former, and so contrived as to bring down its Rules to the Level of a Boy's Capacity, and make them enter with more Ease and Familiarity into his Mind. This is the End I had in View: With what Success it has been prosecuted, is a Province for others, not me, to determine. However, if any thing inclines me to hope for Acceptance in the World, it is owing to the kind Assistance I have had from time to time of the above mentioned and other Gentlemen, as the Duty of their respective Employments would permit them. What discouraged me most in this Undertaking, was the different Opinions of Grammarians, with the sharp Contests and Disputes they had about the Method of Instruction, and the most proper Way to communicate Latin Tongue to others with the greatest Facility and Expedition. It would be almost endless Task to reckon up the various Schemes that have been projected for this Purpose: Therefore I shall engage no farther in this Subject, than as it seems necessary to give my Reader a clear and distinct View of the Reasons that determined me to the Method I have followed.

I have long observed, that those of this Country, whose Business it is to direct the Studies of Youth, are greatly divided about what an Introduction to Latin Grammar should be.

sought properly to contain, and in what Language its Precepts should be conveyed. Some are for contracting it into as narrow Limits as is possible, and not to burden the Memory of the Learner with any thing but what is essential and absolutely necessary; while others contend that this is too general, and not sufficient to direct his Practice, without the Addition of more particular Rules. Again, tho' the greater Part incline to have the first Principles of Grammar communicated in a known Language, there are not a few, and of these some Persons of Distinction, who are still for retaining them in Latin, which, tho' attended at first with more Difficulty, makes (in their Judgment) a more lasting Impression on the Mind, and carries the Learner more directly to the Habit of speaking Latin, a Practice much used in our Schools. It appeared next to an Impossibility to satisfy so many different Opinions: However the Method I have taken seems to bid fairest for it. For I have reduced the Substance of these Rudiments into a Sort of Text, and have given the Latin an English Version, leaving the Master to his own Choice and Discretion which to use. And that none may complain that the Text is too compendious, I have subjoined large Notes, which, I humbly conceive, will supply that Defect.

To render my Design of more general Use, I was obliged to fall in with this Expedient, which has produced one Inconvenience, namely, that the Book is thereby swelled to a much greater Bulk than I could have wished, or some perhaps will excuse; tho' the Reasons are so obvious, that it is needless to relate them. I confess I have been larger in the Notes than the Nature of a Rudiments seemed to require: But as I presume there is nothing in them but what may be useful either to Master or Scholar; and since it was never my Intention that they should be all taught, or any of them, with the same Care as the Essential Parts, I thought they might the more easily be dispensed with. There is one Thing more which has considerably encreased them, viz. the Remarks I have added on English Nouns, Pronouns and Verbs, which I judged useful on a double Account; First, As they serve to illustrate Latin Grammar, the first Notions and Impressions whereof we receive from the Language we ourselves speak. Secondly, Because the greater Number of those who are taught the Latin Tongue, reap little other Benefit from it, than as it enables them to speak and write English with the greater Exactness, I supposed it would not be amiss to throw in something in order to that End.

Having

Having thus given a general Plan of my undertaking, all I shall say of the particular management of it, is, that I have laboured along to render every Thing as plain and as easy as I possibly could, considering with a tender Regard for whose Benefit it is designed. I have consulted the best Grammarians both Ancient and Modern, and have borrowed from them whatever I conceived fit for my Purpose; tho' not contenting myself with their bare Authority, I frequently had Recourse to the Fountain itself, I mean, the purest Writers of the Latin Tongue. As thus I have been solicitous to avoid Error, so I have been cautious not to incur the Censure of having affected Novelty, and therefore have receded no farther from the common Systems than I think they have receded from Truth; retaining the usual Terms of Art, which have so long obtained in the Schools, tho' sometimes I have taken the Liberty, as I saw Occasion for it, to explain them my own Way. That I might lay no more Weight on the Memories of Children than they could well bear, I have reduced the Rules to as small a Number as the Subject would allow of, and conceived them in as few Words as was consistent with Perspicuity; leaving it to the Industry of the Teacher to explain them more fully, as he shall find necessary, without out which no Rules can be sufficient. The Syntax is indeed longer than was to be wished; but I frankly own, that I do not see how it can be made much shorter without either confounding its Order, or leaving out the Elliptical Rules. However, to remove the Objection as much as I could, I have subjoined a more Compendious Syntax, consisting only of a few Fundamental Rules, which may be taught alone, or before the other. as the Judgment and Discretion of the Master shall direct him.

N O T E S.

GRAMMAR is the Art of speaking any Language rightly ; as Hebrew, Greek, Latin, English, &c.

Latin Grammar is The Art of speaking rightly the Latin Tongue.

The RUDIMENTS of that Grammar Are plain and easy Instructions, teaching Beginners the first Principles, or the most common and necessary Rules of Latin.

The Rudiments may be reduced to these four Heads, I. Treating of Letters. II. Of Syllables. III. Of Words. IV. Of Sentences.

These are naturally made up one of another ; for one or more Letters make a Syllable, one or more Syllables make a Word, and two or more Words make a Sentence.

A Letter is a Mark or Character representing an uncompounded Sound.

K, Y, Z, are only to be found in Words originally Greek, and H by some is not accounted a Letter, but a Breathing.

We reckon the J. called Jod [or Je] and the V. called Vau, two Letters distinct from I and U, because not only their Figures, but their Powers or Sounds are quite different ; J sounding like G before E, and V almost like F.

A Vowel is a Letter that makes a full and perfect Sound by itself.

A Consonant is a Letter that cannot sound without a Vowel.

A Syllable is any one complete Sound.

There can be no Syllable without a Vowel : And any of the six Vowels alone, or any Vowel with one or more Consonants before or after it, make a Syllable.

There are for the most Part as many Syllables in a Word as there are Vowels in it : Only there are two Kinds of Syllables in which it is otherwise, viz. 1. When U with any other Vowel comes after G, Q or S, as in Lingua, Qui, Suadeo ; where the Sound of the U vanishes, or is little heard. 2. When two Vowels join to make a Diphthong or double Vowel.

A Diphthong is a Sound compounded of the Sounds of two Vowels, so as both of them are heard.

Of Diphthongs three are Proper, viz. au, eu, ei, in which both Vowels are heard ; and two Improper, viz. a, æ, in which the a and o are not heard, but they are pronounced as e simple.

Some, not without Reason, to these five Diphthongs, add other three ; as, ai in Maia, ei in Troia, yi or ui in Harpyia or Harpia.

D. Quatuor; Nomen, Pronomen, Verbum, Participium.

M. Quot sunt Indeclinabiles?

S. Eight; Noun, Pronoun, Verb, Participle; Adverb, Preposition, Interjection, Conjunction.

M. How are they divided?

S. Into Declinable and Indeclinable.

M. How many are declinable?

S. Four; Noun, Pronoun, Verb, Participle.

M. How many are indeclinable?

S. Likewise four; Adverb, Preposition, Interjection, Conjunction.

A Word, [Vox or dictio] is one or more Syllables joined together, which Men have agreed upon to signify something.

Words are commonly reduced to eight Classes called Parts of Speech: But some comprise them all under three Classes, viz. Noun, Verb, and Adverb. Under Noun they comprehend also Pronoun and Participle; and under Adverb also Preposition, Interjection and Conjunction. Others to these add a fourth Class, viz. Adnoun, comprehending Adjectives under it, and restricting Noun to Substantives only. These by some are otherwise called Names, Qualities, Affirmations and Particles.

The declinable Parts of Speech are so called, because there is some Change made upon them, especially in their last Syllables: And this is what we call Declension or declining of Words. But the indeclinable Parts continue unchangeably the same.

The last Syllable, on which these Changes do fall, is called the Ending or Termination of Words.

These Changes are made by what Grammarians call Accidentia, i. e. The Accidents of Words.

These Accidents are commonly reckoned Six, viz. Gender, Case, Number, Mood, Tense, and Person. Of these, Gender and Case are peculiar to three of the declinable Parts of Speech, viz. Noun, Pronoun and Participle; and Mood, Tense and Person are peculiar to one of them, viz. Verb: And Number is common to them all.

NOTE 1. That Person may also be said to belong to Noun or Pronoun: But then it is not properly an Accident, because no Change is made by it in the Word.

4 Rudiments of the Latin Tongue,

NOTE 2. That Figure, Species, and Comparison, which some call Accidents do not properly come under that Name, because the Words have a different Signification from what they had before. See Chap. IX.

NOTE 3. That the Changes that happen to a Noun, Pronoun, a Participle, are in a stricter Sense called Declension or Declination of the and the Changes that happen to a Verb are called Conjugation.

M. How many Declensions are there ?

S. Five ; First, Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth.

GENERAL RULES.

1. Nouns of the Neuter Gender have the Nominative, Accusative and Vocative alike in both Numbers ; And these Cases in the Plural end always in a.

2. The Vocative for the most part in the Singular, [and] always in the Plural, is like the Nominative.

3. Dativus & Ablativus Plurales sunt similes.

4. Nomina propria plerumque carent plurali.

3. The Dative and Ablative Plural are alike.

4. Proper Names for the most part want the Plural.

NOUN is that Part of Speech which signifies the Name or Quality of a Thing; as, Homo, a Man; Bonus, good.

A Noun is either Substantive or Adjective.

A Substantive Noun is, That which signifies the Name of a Thing; as Arbor, a Tree; Virtus, Virtue; Bonitas, Goodness.

An Adjective Noun is that which signifies an Accident, Quality, or Property of a Thing; as, Albus, white, Felix, happy; Gravis, heavy.

A Substantive may be distinguished from an Adjective these two Ways:

1. A Substantive can stand in a Sentence without an Adjective, but an Adjective cannot without a Substantive; as, I can say a Stone falls, but cannot say, Heavy falls. 2. If the Word Thing be joined with an Adjective, it will make Sense; but if it be joined with a Substantive, it will make Nonsense: Thus we say, A good Thing, A white Thing; but we do not say A Man Thing, A Beast Thing.

A Substantive Noun is divided into Proper and Appellative.

A Proper Substantive is, That which agrees to one particular Thing of a Kind; as Virgilius, a Man's Name; Penelope, a Woman's Name; Scotia, Scotland; Edinburgum, Edinburgh; Taus, the Tay.

An Appellative Substantive is, That which is common to a whole Kind of Things; as Vir, a Man; Fœmina, a Woman; Regnum, a Kingdom; Urbs, a City; Fluvius, a River.

NOTE, That when a proper Name is applied to many, it becomes an Appellative; as, duodecim Cæsares, the twelve Cæsars.

GENDER in a natural Sense is the Distinction of Sex, or the Difference between Male and Female; But in a Grammatical Sense, we commonly understand by it, The Fitness that a Substantive Noun hath to be joined to an Adjective of such a Termination, and not of another. Therefore,

Of Names of Animals, the Hees are of the Masculine, and the Shces of the Feminine Gender: But of Things without Life, and, where the Diversity of Sex is not considered, even of Things that have Life, some are of the Masculine, others of the Feminine, and others of the Neuter Gender, according to the Use of the best Authors of the Latin Tongue.

Besides these three principal Genders there are reckoned also other three less principal, which are nothing else but Compounds of the three former, viz. The Gender Common to two, the Gender Common to three, and the Doubtful Gender.

I. The Common Gender, or Gender common to two, [Genus commune or Commune duum] is Masculine and Feminine; and belongs to such Nouns as agree to both Sexes; as, Patens, a Father or Mother; Bos, an Ox or Cow.

II. The Gender Common to three, [Genus commune trium] is Masculine, Feminine and Neuter, and belongs only to Adjectives. Whereof some have three Terminations, the first Masculine, the second Feminine, and the third Neuter; as, Bonus, bona, bonum, good. Some have two, the first Masculine and Feminine, and the second Neuter; as, Mollis, molle, soft.

And

And some have but one Termination, which agrees indifferently to all of the three Genders; as Prudens, wife.

III. The Doubtful Gender [Genus dubium] belongs to such Nouns as are found in good Authors sometimes in one Gender, and sometimes in another; as Dies, a Day, Masc. or Fem. Vulgus the Rabble, Masc. or Neut.

[We have excepted out of the Number of Genders the Epicene or Promiscuous Gender; for, properly speaking, there is no such Gender distinct from the three chief ones, or the doubtful. There are indeed Epicene Nouns, that is, some Names of Animals, in which the Distinction of Sex is either not at all, very obscurely considered; and these are generally of the Gender of their Termination; as, Aquila, an Eagle, Femin. because it ends in a; Passer, a Sparrow, Mascul. because it ends in er. (See p. 8. and 11.) So Homo, a Man or Woman, Masc. Mancipium, a Slave, Neut. Anguis, a Serpent, Doubtful.

To distinguish these Genders we make use of these three Words, Hic, hic, hoc, which are commonly, though improperly called Articles. Hic is the Sign of the Masc. hic of the Fem. hoc of the Neut. Gender; Hic & hic of the Common to two; hic, hic, hoc, of the Common to three; hic aut hic; hic aut hoc, &c. of the doubtful.

By CASES we understand the different Terminations that Nouns receive in declining: So called from cado to fall, because they naturally fall or flow from the Nominative, which is therefore called Casus rectus, the straight Case; as the other five are named Obliqui, crooked.

The Singular NUMBER denotes one single Thing; as Homo, a Man the Plural denotes more things than one; as Homines, Men.

¶ Before the Learner proceeds to the Declension of Latin Nouns, it may not perhaps be improper to give him a general View of

The Declension of English Nouns.

I. The English Language hath the two Genders of Nature, viz. Masculine and Feminine; for Animals in it are called HE or SHE, according to the Difference of their Sex: And almost every Thing without Life is called IT. But because all the Adjectives of this Language are of one Termination, it has no Occasion for any other Genders.

II. The English, properly speaking, has no Cases, because there is no Alteration made in the Words themselves, as in the Latin; but instead thereof we use some little Words called PARTICLES.

Thus, the Nominative Case is the simple Noun itself: The Particle Of put before it, or 's after it, makes the Genitive: TO or FOR before it makes the Dative: The Accusative is the same with the Nominative. The Vocative hath O before it: And the Ablative hath WITH, FROM, IN, BY, &c.

NOTE 1. That when a Substantive comes before a Verb, it is called the Nominative; when it follows after a Verb active, without a Preposition interveening, it is called the Accusative.

NOTE 2. That the Apostrophus or Sign ['] is not used in the Genitive Plural; as, Mens Works, the Apostles Creed.

NOTE 3. That TO the Sign of the Dative, and O of the Vocative, are frequently omitted or understood.

Besides these there are other two little Words called ARTICLES, which are commonly put before Substantive Nouns, viz. A [or An before a vowel or H] called the Indefinite Article, and THE called the Definite.

A or An signifies as much as the Adjective One, and is put for it; as, Man, that is, One Man. The is a Pronoun, and signifies almost the same with This or That, and These or Those.

NOTE 1. That proper Names of Men, Women, Towns, Kingdoms, and Appellatives, when used in a very general Sense, have none of these Articles; as, Man is mortal, i. e. every Man; God abhors Sin, i. e. all sins: But proper Names of Rivers, Ships, Hills, &c. frequently have The; as, the Thames, the Britannia, the Alps.

NOTE 2. That the Vocative has none of these Articles, and the Plural wants the Indefinite.

NOTE 3. That when an Adjective is joined with a Substantive, the Article is put before both; as, A good Man, The good Man: And the Definite is put before the Adjective when the Substantive is understood; as, The just shall live by Faith, i. e. The just Man.

III. The English hath two Numbers as the Latin, and the Plural is commonly made by putting an s to the Singular; as Book, Books.

Exc. 1. Such as end in ch, sh, ss, and x, which have es added to their Singular; as, Church-es, Brush-es, Witness-es, Box-es. Where it is to be noticed that such Words have a Syllable more in the Plural than in the Singular Number. Which likewise happens to all Words ending in ce, ce, je, ze; as, Faces, Ages, Houses, Mazes. The Reason of this proceeds from the near Approach these Terminations have in their Sound to an s, so that their Plural could not be distinguished from the Singular without the Addition of another Syllable. And for the same Reason, Verbs of these Terminations have a Syllable added to them in their third Person Singular of the present Tense.

Exc. 2. Words that end in f, or fe, have their Plural in ves; as, Calf, Calves; Leaf, Leaves; Wife, Wives: But not always; for Hoof, Roof, Grief, Mischief, Dwarf, Strife, Muff, &c. retain f. Staff has Staves.

Exc. 3. Some have their Plural in en; as, Man, Men; Woman, Women; Child, Children; Chick, Chickens; Brother, Brothers or Brethren; (which last is seldom used but in Sermons, or in a Burlesque Sense.)

Exc. 4. Some are more irregular; as, Die, Dice; Mouse, Mice; Louse, Lice; Goose, Geese; Foot, Feet; Tooth, Teeth; Penny, Pence; Sow, Sows, and Swine; Cow, Cows, and Kine.

Exc. 5. Some are the same in both Numbers; as, Sheep, Hose, Swine, Chicken, Pease, Deer; Fish and Fishes; Mile and Miles; Horse and Horses.

NOTE, That as Nouns in y do often change y into ie, so these have rather ies than ys in the Plural; as, Cherry, Cherries.

An English Noun is thus declined.

¶ After the same Manner you may decline Litera, a Letter; Via, a Way; Galea, an Helmet; Tunica, a Coat; Toga, a Gown.

A is a Latin Termination, e, as, and es, are Greek.

Nouns in a and e are Feminine, in as and es Masculine.

RULE, Filia, a Daughter; Nata, a Daughter; Dea, a Goddess; Anima, the Soul, with some others, have more frequently abus than is in their Dat. and Abl. Plur. to distinguish them from Masculines in us of the second Declension.

¶ In declining Greek Nouns observe the following Rules.

1. Greek Nouns in as [and a] have sometimes their Accusative [with the Poets] in an; as, Æneas, Æneam vel Ænean; [Ossa, Ossam vel Ossan.]

2. These in es have their Accusative in en, and their Vocative and Ablative in e; as,

Nom. Anchises,

Voc. Anchise,

Accus. Anchisen,

Abl. Anchise.

3. Nouns in e have their Genitive in es, their Accusative in en, their Dative, Vocative, and Ablative in e; as,

Nom. Penelope,

Dat. Penelope,

Voc. Penelope,

Abl. Penelopè.

Gen. Penelopes,

Acc. Penelopen.

[As to the Dative of Words in e, I have followed Probus and Priscian among the Ancients; Lilly, Alvarus, Vossius, Messieurs de Port Royal, Johnson, &c. among the Moderns. And tho' none of them cite any Example, yet I remember to have observed three such Datives, viz. Cybele in Virg. Æn. XI.

B. Penelope in Martial, Epig. XI. 8, 9. and Epigone in Reinesii Syntag. scrip. Class. 14. Num. 85. But Diomedes and Disputator seem to be of opinion, that these Nouns have æ in their Dative. The Reason that moved the former is, because they thought it incongruous, that seeing Nouns in e generally follow the Greek in all their other Cases, they should follow the Latin in their Dative on- especially since their Ablative, which answers to the Greek Dative, ends in æ. As on the contrary, they maintain, that if such Nouns have æ in their dative, it must come from a Nominative in a; of which there are some Examples yet extant: And then they may likewise have their Accusative in am; Penelopam, Circam, in Plautus, Lycambam in Terentianus Maurus. Thus Helenæ or Helenes, Helenam or Helenen, are frequently to be met with in poets; who also turn such Words as commonly end in a, into e in the Nominative and Vocative, when the Measure of their Verse requires it. And here it may not be improper to remark, that even Greek Words in es have sometimes their Nominative and Vocative in a, (whence comes their Genitive and Dative æ:) And, if Mr. Johnson's Citations are right, both es and e have sometimes their Accusative in em.]

Secunda Declinatio.

M. Q Uomodo dignoscitur Secunda Declinatio?

R E G U L Æ.

I. Nominativus in us facit Vocativum in e; ut, Ventus, vente.

II. Propria in ius perdunt us in Vocativo; ut, Georgius, Georgi.

Filius hath also fili, and Deus hath Deus in the Vocative, and in the Plural more frequently Dii and Diis, than Dei and Deis.

R U L E S.

I. The Nominative in us makes the Vocative in e; as, Ventus, vente.

II. Proper Names in ius lose us in the Vocative; as, Georgius, Georgi.

The most common Terminations of the second Declension are er and us of the Masc. and um of the Neut. Gender.

There is only one Noun in ir of this Declension, viz. Vir, a Man, with its Compounds Levir, Duumvir, Triumvir, &c. and only one in ur, viz. Satur, full, (of old Saturus) an Adjective. Os and on are Greek Terminations, and generally changed into us and um in their Nominative.

These, with other Greek Nouns in us, have sometimes their Acc. in on. [We have excluded the Termination eus from this Declension, as belonging more properly to the Third; as, Orpheus, Orpheos, Orphei, Orphea, Orpheu: For when it is of the second Declension, it is e-us, of two Syllables, and so falls under the Termination us; Orphe-us, Orphe-i, (contracted Orphei and Orphi) Orphe-o, Orphe-um, (or Orphe-on) Orphe-o.]

Of the final Letters of the third Declension six are peculiar to it, o, c, d, l, t, x; the other five are common to other Declensions, viz. a, e, n, r, s.

The copious final Letters are, o, n, r, s, x.

The copious final Syllables are, io, do, go, en, er, or, as, es, is, os, us, ns, rs, ex.

All Nouns in a of this Declension are originally Greek, and have always an m before it. There are only two Words in c; Lac, Milk; and Halec, a Herring. Words in d are proper Names of Men, and very rare. There are only three Words in t, viz. Caput, the Head, Sinciput, the Forehead; Occiput, the Hind-head.

1. The Terminations, er, or, es, o, n,
2. The Terminations io, do, go, as, es, is, ys, aus, x, and s after a Consonant,
3. The Terminations a, c, e, l, men, ar, ur, us, ut,

But from these there are many Exceptions.

NOTE 1. That for the most Part the Genitive hath a Syllable more than the Nominative; and where it is otherwise they generally end in e, es, or NOTE 2. That whatever Letter or Syllable comes before is in the Genitive must run through the other Cases (except the Accusative and Vocative of Neuters;) as, Thema, -atis, -ati, -ate, a Theme; Sanguis, -guinis, Blood; Iter, -tineris, a Journey; Carmen, -minis, a Verse; Judex, -dicis, a Judge.

REGULÆ.

1. Nomina in e, & Neutra in al & ar, habent i in Ablativo.

2. Quæ habent e tantum in Ablativo, faciunt Genitivum pluralem in um.

3. Quæ habent i tantum, vel e aut i simul, faciunt ium.

4. Neutra quæ habent e in Ablativo singulari, habent a in Nominativo, Accusativo & Vocativo plurali.

5. At quæ habent i in Ablativo, faciunt ia.

RULES.

1. Nouns in e, and Neuters in al and ar, have i in the Ablative.

2. These which have e only in the Ablative, make their Genitive plural in um.

3. These which have i only, e and i together, make ium.

4. Neuters which have e in their Ablative sing. have a in the Nominative, Accusative and Vocative plural.

5. But these which have i in the Ablative, make ia.

EXCEPTIONS in the Accusative singular.

1. Some Nouns in is have im in the Accusative; as Vis, vim, Strength; Tussis, the Cough; Sitis, Thirst; Buris, the Beam of a Plough; Ravis, Hoarseness; Amussis, a Mason's Rule. To which add Names of Rivers in is; as, Tybris, Thamesis, which the Poets sometimes make in in.

2. Some in is have em or im; as, Navis, a Ship; Puppis, the Stern; Scaris, an Ax; Clavis, a Key; Febris, a Fever; Pelvis, a Basin; Reffis, Rope; Turris, a Tower; Navem vel navim, &c.

EXCEPTIONS in the Ablative singular.

1. Nouns which have im in the Accusative have i in the Ablative; as, vis, vim, vi, &c. These that have em or im have e or i; as, Navis, navem, vel navim, nave vel navi.

2. Canalis, Vectis, Bipennis, have i: Avis, Amnis, Ignis, Unguis, Rus, and Imber, with some others, have e or i; but most commonly e.

3. These Neuters in ar have e; Far, Jubar, Nectar and Hepar: Sale also has fale.

EXCEPTIONS in the Genitive plural.

1. Nouns of one Syllable in as, is, and s with a Consonant before it have ium; as, As, assium; Lis, litium; Urbs, urbium.

2. Also Nouns in es and is, not increasing in their Genitive; as, vallis, vallium; Rupes, rupium. Except, Panis, Canis, Vates, and Volucris.

3. To which add Caro, Cor, Cos, Do3, Mus, Nix, Nox, Linter, Sal, Os, Qffis. NOTE, That when the Genitive plural ends in ium, the Accusative frequently, instead of es, has eis or is; as, omneis, parteis, or omnis, partis, for omnes, partes.

Of Greek Nouns.

I. Greek Nouns have sometimes their Genitive in os. And these are
 1. Such as increase their Genitive with d; as, Arcas, Arcadis vel Arcados, an Arcadian; Briseis, -idis vel -eidos, a Woman's Name. 2. Such as increase in os pure, i. e. with a Vowel before it; Herefis, eos vel -ios, an Heresy. 3. To these add Sphyngos, Strymonos and Panos.

NOTE, That is is more frequent, except in the second Kind, and Pa-tronymicks of the first.

II. 1. Greek Words which increase their Genitive in is or os not pure,
 (i. e. with a Consonant before it) have frequently their Accusative sing.
 in a, and plur. in as; as, Lampus, lampadis, lampada, lampadas; also Mi-nos, Minois, Minoa; Tros, Trois, Troa, Troas; Heros, herois, heroa, heroas.

2. Words in is or ys, whose Genitive ends in os pure, have their Accusative in im or in, and ym or yn; as, Herefis, -eos, herefim or -in, Chelys, -lyos, a Lute; chelym or -lyn. Of Words in is which have their Genitive in dis or dos, Masculines have their Accusative for the most part in im or in, seldom in dem, and never in da, that I know of; as, Paris, Parim vel Parin, vel Paridem; Feminines have most commonly dem or da, and seldom im or in; as, Briseis, Briseidem vel Briseida.

III. Feminines in have us in their Genitive, and in in their other Cases, as, Dido, Didus, Dido, &c. or they may be declined after the Latin Form, Didonis, Didoni, &c. which Juno (as being of a Latin Original) always follows.

IV. Greek Nouns in s frequently throw away s in their Vocative; as, Cal-chas, Achilles, Paris, Tiphys, Orpheus; Calcha, Achille, Pari, Tiphy, Orpheu.

V. Greek Nouns have um, (and sometimes on in their Genitive plural; as, Epigrammatôn, Herefôn) and very rarely ium.

VI. Greek Nouns in ma have most frequently is in their Dative and Ablative plural; as, Pœma, Pœmatis, because of old they said Pœmatum,
-ti. Bos has boum, and bobus or bubus.

Nouns in us of this Declension are generally Masculine, and these in us all Neuter, and indeclinable in the singular Number.

RULE. Some Nouns have ubus in their Dative and Ablative plural viz. Arcus, a Bow; Artus, a Joint; Lacus, a Lake, Acus, a Needle; Portus, a Port or Harbour; Partus, a Birth; Tribus, a Tribe; Veru, a Spit.

NOTE, That of old Nouns of this Declension belonged to the Third and were declined as Grus, gruis, a Crane; thus, Fructus, fructus, fructui, fructuum, fructu: Fructus, fructuum, fructibus, fructus, fructus, fructui bus. So that all the Cases are contracted except the Dative sing. and Genitive plur. Nouns of the fifth Declension are not above fifty, and are all Feminine, except Dies, a Day, Masc. or Fem. and Meridies, the Mid-day or Noon, Masc.

All Nouns of this Declension end in ies, except three, Fides, Faith; Spes, Hope; Res, a Thing.

And all Nouns in ies are of the Fifth, except these four; Abies, a Fir-tree; Aries, a Ram; Paries, a Wall, and Quies Rest; which are of the Third.

Most Nouns of this Declension want the Genitive, Dative, and Ablative plural; and many of them want the Plural altogether.

General Remarks on all the Declensions.

1. The Genitive Plural of the first four is sometimes contracted, especially by Poets; as, Cælicolûm, Decûm, Mensûm, Currûm; for Cælicolârûm, Deorûm, Mensurûm, Curruum.

2. When the Genitive of the second ends in ii, the last i is sometimes taken away by Poets; as, Tugurî for Tugurii. We read also Aulai for aule in the First, and Fide for fides in the Fifth; and so of other like Words.

Declinatio Adjectivorum.

Adjectiva sunt vel primæ & secundæ Declinationis, vel tertiæ tantum.

Omnia adjectiva habentia tres Terminationes (præter (a) undecim) sunt primæ & secundæ: At quæ unam vel duas Terminationes habent, sunt tertiæ.

The Declension of Adjectives.

Adjectives are either of the First and Second Declension, or of the Third only.

All Adjectives having three Terminations (except eleven) are of the First and Second: But these which have one or two Terminations, are of the Third.

Adjectives of the First and Second have their Masculine in us, or er; their Feminine always in a, and their Neuter always in um; as,

A. ten-ero,	-era,	-ero :	A. ten-eris,	-eris,	-eris.

Adjectives are declined as three Substantives of the same Termination and Declensions: As in the Examples above, bonus, like dominus; tener like gener; bona and tenera like penna; bonum and tenerum like regnum. Therefore the Ancients, as is clear from Varro, lib. 3. de Anal. decline every Gender separately, and not all three jointly, as we now commonly do: And perhaps it may not be amiss to follow this Method at first especially if the Boy is of a slow Capacity.

Of Adjectives in er, some retain the e, as tener. So miser, -era, -erum wretched; liber, -era, -erum, free; and all Compounds in ger and fer. Others lose it; as, pulcher, pulchra, pulchrum, fair; niger, -gra, -grum, black.

These following Adjectives, unus, one; totus, whole; solus, alone; ul- lus, any; nullus, none; alius, another of many; alter, another, or one of two; neuter, neither; uter, whether, with its Compounds; uterque, both; uterlibet, utervis, which of the two you please; alteruter, the one or the other; have their Genitive singular in ius and Dative in i.

E X C E P T I O N S.

1. Dives, Hospes, Sospes, Superstes, Juvenis, Senex and Pauper, have e in the Ablat. Sing. and consequently um in the Gen. Plur.2. Compos, Impos, Consors, Inops, Vigil, Supplex, Uber, Degener and Puber; also Compounds ending in ceps, fex, pes, and corpor; as, Princeps, Artifex, Bipes, Tricorpor, have um, not ium.NOTE, That all these have seldom the Neuter, and never almost the Neut. Plur. in the Nom. and Accus. To Memor, which has memori and memorum; and Locuples, which has locupletium; also, Defes, Refes, Hebes, Perpes, Prapes, Teres, Concolor, Versicolor; which being hardly to be met with in the Genit. Plur. 'tis a Doubt whether they should have um or ium, though I incline most to the former.

3. Par has pari; vetus, vetera, & veterum; Plus (which hath only the Neut. in the Sing.) has plure, and plures, plura (or pluria) plurium.

NOTE, 1. That Comparatives and Adjectives in ns, have more frequently e than i, and Participles in the Ablatives called Absolute have generally e; as, Carolo regnante, not regnanti.

NOTE, 2. That Adjectives joined with Substantives Neuter, hardly ever have e but i; as viſtrici ferro, not viſtrice.

NOTE, 3. That Adjectives when they are put substantively, have oftentimes e; as, Affinis, Familiaris, Rivalis, Sodalis, &c. So Par, a Match; as, Cum parē queque ſuo cōeunt. Ovid.

Of NUMERAL ADJECTIVES.

1. THE Ordinal and Multiplicative Numbers (ſee Chap. IX.) are regularly declined. The Distributive wants the Singular, as alſo doth the Cardinal, except Unus, which is declined as in p. 16. and hath the Plural when joined with a Subſtantive that wanteth the Sing. as, Una litera, one Letter; Una mœnia, one Wall; or when ſeveral Particulars are conſidered complexly as making one Compound; as Uni ſex dies, i. e. One Space of ſix Days; Una veſtimenta, i. e. One Suit of Apparel. Plaut.

Duo and tres are declined after this Manner:

Plur.	Nom. duo,	duæ,	duo,	Plur.	Nom. tres,	tres,	tria,
	Gen. duorum,	duarum,	duorum,		Gen. trium,	trium,	trium,
	Dat. duobus,	duabus,	duobus,		Dat. tribus,	tribus,	tribus,
	Acc. duos vel-o,	duas,	duo,		Acc. tres,	tres,	tria,
	Voc. duo,	duæ,	duo,		Voc. tres,	tres,	tria,
	Abl. duobus,	duabus,	duobus.		Abl. tribus,	tribus,	tribus,

Ambo, Both, is declined as Duo.

2. From Quatuor to Centum are all indeclinable.

3. From Centum to Mille they are declined thus, Ducenti, ducentæ, ducenta; ducentorum, ducentarum, ducentorum, &c.

4. As to Mille, Varro, and all the Grammarians after him, down to the laſt Age, make it (when it is put before a Genitive Plural) a Subſtantive indeclinable in the Sing. and in the Plural declined, Millia, millium, millibus; but when it hath a Subſtantive joined to it in any other Caſe, they make it an Adjective plural indeclinable. But Scioppius, and after him Gronovius, contend that Mille is always an Adjective plural; and under that Termination of all Caſes and Genders; but that it hath two Neuters, hec Mille, and hec Millia, that the firſt is uſed when one thouſand is ſignified, and the ſecond when more than one. And that where it ſeems to be a Subſtantive governing a Genit. Multitudo, Numerus, Manus, Pecunia, Pondus, Spatium, Corpus, or the like, are underſtood. I own that formerly I was of this Sentiment; but now the weighty Reaſons adduced by the moſt accurate Perizonius incline me rather to follow the ancient Grammarians.

After the Declenſion of Subſtantives and Adjectives ſeparately, it may not be improper to exerciſe the Learner with ſome Examples of a Subſtantive and Adjective declined together; which will both make him more ready in the Declenſions, and render the Dependence of the Adjective upon the Subſtantive more familiar to him. Theſe Examples at firſt be of the ſame Terminations and Declenſions; as Dominus, a juſt Lord; Penna bona, a good Pen; Ingenium eximium, an excellent Wit: Afterwards let them be different in one or both; as, Puer probus, a good Boy; Leſſio facilis, an eaſy Leſſon; Poëta optimus, an excellent Poet; Fruſtus dulcis, ſweet Fruit; Dies fauſtus, a happy Day, &c. And if the Boy has as yet been taught Writing, let him write either in the School, or at home, to be reviſed by the Maſter next Day. Of De Comparatione.

M. Q UOT sunt Gradus Comparationis?

D. Tres; Positivus, Comparativus & Superlativus.

M. Quotæ Declinationis sunt hi Gradus?

D. Positivus est Adjectivum Primæ & Secundæ Declinationis, vel Tertiæ tantum; Comparativus est semper Tertiæ; Superlativus semper Primæ & Secundæ.

M. Unde formatur Comparativus Gradus?

D. A proximo casu Positivi in i, addendo pro masculino & fœminino syllabam or, & us pro neutro; ut, Doctus, learned, Gen. docti, doctior, & doctius, more learned; Mitis, meek, Dat. miti, mitior & mitius, more meek.

M. Unde formatur Superlativus?

D. 1. Si Positivus desinat in er, Superlativus formatur addendo rimus; ut, Pulcher, fair, pulcherrimus, most fair; Pauper, poor, pau-perrimus, most poor.

2. Si Positivus non desinat in er, Superlativus formatur a proximo casu in i, addendo simus; ut,

Of Comparison.

M. H OW many Degrees of Comparison are there?

S. Three; the Positive, Comparative and Superlative.

M. Of what Declension are these Degrees?

S. The Positive is an Adjective of the First and Second Declension, or Third only; the Comparative is always of the Third; the Superlative always of the First and Second.

M. Whence is the Comparative Degree formed?

S. From the next Case of the Positive in i, by adding for the Masculine and Feminine the Syllable or, and us for the Neuter; as, Doctus, learned, Gen. docti, doctior, & doctius, more learned.

M. Whence is the Superlative formed?

S. 1. If the Positive ends in er, the Superlative is formed by adding rimus; as,

Pulcher, fair, pulcherrimus, most fair; Pauper, poor, pau-perrimus, most poor.

2. If the Positive ends not in er, the Superlative is formed from the next Case in i, by adding simus; as,

Gen.

Gen. Docti, doctissimus, most learned : Dat. Miti, mitissimus, most meek.

By Grammatical COMPARISON we understand three Adjective Nouns, of which the two last are formed from the first, and import Comparison with it, that is, heightening or lessening of its Signification.

Consequently these Adjectives only which are capable of having their Signification increased or diminished, can be compared.

The POSITIVE signifies the Quality of a Thing simply and absolutely ; as, Durus, hard ; Parvus, little.

The COMPARATIVE heightens or lessens that Quality ; as, Durior, harder, Minor, less.

The SUPERLATIVE heightens or lessens it to a very high or very low Degree ; as, Durissimus, hardest, or most hard ; Minimus, very little, or least.

The Positive hath various Terminations ; the Comparative ends always in or and us ; the Superlative always in nus, ma, mum.

[† The positive, properly speaking, is no Degree of Comparison, for it does not compare Things together : However it is accounted one, because the other two are founded upon and formed from it.]

The SIGN of the Comparative in our Language is the Syllable er added to an Adjective, or the Word more put before it.

The SIGN of the Superlative is the Syllable est added to an Adjective, or the Words very or most put before it.

NOTE, That when the Positive is a long Word, or would otherwise sound harsh by having er or est added to it, we commonly make the Comparative by the Word more, and the Superlative by most or very put before it.

And for the like Reason, the Latin Comparative is sometimes made by Magis, and the Superlative by Valde or Maxime, put before the Positive. And these are particularly used, when the Positive ends in us with a Vowel before it ; as Pius, godly ; Arduus, high ; Idoneus, fit ; tho' not always.

IRREGULAR COMPARISONS.

1. Bonus,	melior,	optimus :	Good,	better,	best.
Malus,	pejor,	pessimus :	Evil,	worse,	worst.
Magnus,	major,	maximus :	Great,	greater,	greatest.
Parvus,	minor,	minimus :	Little,	less,	least.

Multus, plurimus ; multa, plurima ; multum, plus, plurimum : much, more, most.

2. Facilis, easy ; Humilis, low ; Similis, like ; make their Superlative by changing is into imus ; thus, facillimus, humillimus, simillimus.

3. Exter, outward ; Citer, hither ; Superus, above ; Inferus, below ; Posterus, behind, have regular Comparatives ; but their Superlatives are, extremus (or extimus,) uttermost ; citimus, hithermost ; supremus (or summus,) uppermost, highest, last ; infimus (or imus,) lowest ; postremus (or postumus) latest, or last.

4. Compounds in Dicus, Loquus, Ficus, and Vohus, have entior and entissimus ; as Maledicus, one that railleth ; Magniloquus, one that boasteth ; Beneficus, Beneficent ; Malevolus, Malevolent. But these seem rather to come from Participles or Nouns in ens. Besides the Comparatives and Superlatives of Adjectives derived from Loquor and Facio, are very rare, and Terence has Mirificissimus, and Plautus has Mendaciloquius.

5. Pror, former, has Primus, first ; Uterior, farther, Ultimus, farthest or last ; Propior, nearer, Proximus, nearest or next ; Crior, swifter, Cissimus,

22 Rudiments of the Latin Tongue,

mus, swiftest; their Positives being out of use, or quite wanting. Proximus has also another Comparative formed from it, viz. Proximior.

6. There are also a great many other Adjectives capable of having their Signification increased, which yet want one, or more of these Degrees of Comparison; as, Almus, gracious, without Compar. and Superl. Magnus, great, Magnior, greater, without the Superl. Sacer, holy, Sacerrimus, most holy; without the Comp. Anterior, former, without Posit. and Superl.

¶ These three Degrees of Comparison being nothing else but three distinct Adjectives, may be declined either severally each by itself, or jointly together; Respect still being had to their Declensions. But the first Way is much easier, and will answer all the Purposes of Comparison as well as the other.

A PRONOUN is an irregular Kind of Noun: Or, it is a Part of Speech which has Respect to, and supplies the Place of a Noun; as instead of our Name, I say, Tu, Thou or You; instead of Jacobus fecit, James did, I say, Ille fecit, He did it, viz. James.

NOTE, 1. That the Dgt. Mihi is sometimes by the Poets contracted into Mi.

NOTE, 2. That of old the Gen. Plur. of Ego was Nostrorum and Nostrarum; of Tu, Vestrorum and Vestrarum (of which there are several Examples in Plautus and Terence) which were afterwards contracted into Nostrum and Vestrum.

NOTE, 3. That we use Nostrum and Vestrum after Numerals, Partitives, Comparatives and Superlatives, and Nostri and Vestri after other Nouns, and Verbs; tho' there want not some Examples of these last with Nostrum and Vestrum, even in Cicero himself, as Vossius shews.

Meus, my, or mine; Tuus, thy, or thine; Suus, his own, he own, its own, their own; are declined like Bonus, -a, -um. And Noster, our, or ours; Vester, your, or yours, like Pulcher, -chra, -chrum, of the First and Second Declension. But Tuus, Suus, and Vester want the Vocative; Noster and Meus have it in which this last hath mi, (and sometimes meus) in the Masculine Sing.

Nostras, of our Country; Vestras, of your Country; Cujus, of what or which Country, are declined like Felix, of the Third Declension, Gen. Nostratis, Dat. Nostrati, &c.

NOTE, 1. That all Nouns and Pronouns which one cannot call upon, or address himself unto, want the Vocative. In consequence of which Rule many Nouns, as, Nullus, Nemo, Qualis, Quantus, Quot, &c. and several Pronouns, as, Ego, Sui, Quis, &c. want the Vocative; but not so many either of the one or the other, as is commonly taught. For which Reason we have given Vocatives to Ille, Ipse, Hic and Idem, there in following the Judgment of the great Vossius, Messieurs de Port Royal and Johnson, which they support by the following Authorities:

Esso nunc, Sol, testis, & hæc mihi terra precanti. Virg. Æn. 12.

Tu mihi libertas illa paterna veni. Tibul. lib. 2. El. 4.

O nox illa, quæ pene æternas huic urbi tenebras attulisti. Cic. pro Flacc.

Ipse meas æther accipe summe preces. Ovid. in Ibin.

And the Vocative of Idem seems to be confirmed by that of Ovid Met. 15.

——— quique fuisti

Hippolytus, dixit, nunc idem Virbius esto.

Though all Authors before them will only allow four Pronouns, viz. Tu, Meus, Noster, Nostras, to have the Vocative.

NOTE, 2. That Qui is sometimes used for Quis; as, Cic. Quintus fuit labor? Ter. Qui erit rumor populi, si id feceris?

NOTE, 3. That Quod with its Compounds, Aliquod, Quodvis, Quodn, &c. are used when they agree with a Substantive in the same Case; id with its Compounds, Aliquid, Quidvis, Quiddam, &c. either have Substantive express, or govern one in the Genitive: Whence it is that these last are commonly reckoned Substantives. But that quid as well as id is originally an Adjective, its Signification plainly shews; otherwise it shall make Multum, Plus, Tantum, Quantum, &c. also Substantives, when they govern the Genitive; which yet most Grammarians agree to be Adjectives, having the common Word Negotium understood.

NOTE, 4. That Qui the Relative hath oftentimes qui in the Ablative, and at (which is remarkable) in all Genders and Numbers, as Mr. Johnson evinces by a great many Examples out of Plautus and Terence; to which he might have added one out of C. Nepos, III. 3.

NOTE, 5. That Nostras, Vestras and Cujas are declined like Gentile or Rational Nouns in as of the Third Decl. in Imitation of which they are formed; as, Arpinas, Fidenas, Privernas, a Man, Woman or Thing, of or belonging to the Town of Arpinum, Fidena, or Privernum, and may have the Neut. as well as these: (For as Cic. has Iter Arpinas, and Liv. Bellum privernas; so Colum. has Arbustum nostras, and Cic. Nostratia verba) contrary to what Linacser teaches.

[I pass over taking notice, that in old Authors, especially Plautus, we find uis and quisquis sometimes of the Femin. Gender; mis and tis for mei and ti; hiscæ for hi; hibus, thus, for his, iis; illæ, ipsæ, istæ, quæ in the Gen. Dat. Sing. Fem. em for eum; istes for istos; quoius, quoi, for cujus, ui; because they are extraordinary.]

OF COMPOUND PRONOUNS.

I. Some are compounded of Quis and Qui, with some other Word or syllable. In these Quis is sometimes the first, and sometimes the last part of the Word compounded: But Qui is always the first.

1. The Compounds of Quis, when it is put first, are Quisnam, who? Quispiam, Quisquam, any one; Quisque, every one; Quisquis, whosoever: Which are thus declined,

	Nom.	Gen.	Dat.
Quisnam ,	quænam ,	quodnam vel quidnam ;	cujusnâ, cuinam ,
Quispiam ,	quæpiam ,	quodpiam vel quidpiam ;	cujuspiam, cuipiam ,
Quisquam ,	quæquam ,	quodquam vel quidquam ;	cujusquam, cuiquam ,
Quisque ,	quæque ,	quodque vel quidque ;	cujusque, cuique ,
Quisquis ,	- - -	quidquid vel quicquid ;	cujuscuq, cuicui .

And so forth in their other Cases, according to the simple Quis. But Quisquis has no Feminine at all, and the Neuter only in the Nominat. and Accus. Quisquam has also quicquam for quidquam. Acc. quemquam, without the Fem. The Plural is scarcely used.

2. The Compounds of Quis, when it is put last, are Aliquis, some; Ecquis, who? To which some add Nequis, Siquis and Numquis; but these are more frequently read separately, ne quis, si quis, num quis. They are thus declined,

	Nom.	Gen.	Dat.
Aliquis ,	aliqua ,	aliquod vel aliquid ,	alicujus, alicui ,
Ecquis ,	ecqua vel ecquæ ,	ecquod vel ecquid ,	eccujus, eccui ,
Si quis ,	si qua ,	si quod, vel si quid ,	si cujus, si cui ,
Ne quis ,	ne qua ,	ne quod vel ne quid ,	ne cujus, ne cui ,
Num quis ,	num qua ,	num quod vel num quid ,	numcujus, num cui .

NOTE, That these, and only these, have qua in the Nom. Sing. Fem. and Nom. and Accus. Plur. Neut.

26 Rudiments of the Latin Tongue.

3. The Compounds of Qui are Quicumque, whosoever; Quidam, Quilibet, Quivis, any one, whom you please; and are thus declined.

Nom.			Gen.	Dat.
Quicumque ,	quicumque ,	quodcumque ;	cujuscunque ,	cuicunque
Quidam ,	quidam ,	quoddam vel quiddam ;	cujusdam ,	cuidam ,
Quilibet ,	quilibet ,	quodlibet vel quidlibet ;	cujuslibet ,	cuilibet ,
Quivis ,	quivis ,	quodvis vel quidvis ;	cujusvis ,	cuiusvis .

Some of these are twice compounded; as Ecquisnam, Who? Unusquisque, Every one. The first is scarce declined beyond its Nom. and the second wants the Plur.

NOTE, 1. That all these Compounds want the Vocative, except Quisquis, Quilibet, Unusquisque, and perhaps some others. id. Voss. p. 33.

NOTE, 2. That all these Compounds have seldom or never quis, but quibus in their Dat. and Abl. Plur.

NOTE, 3. That Quidam hath quendam, quandam, quoddam vel quiddam in the Accus. Sing. and quorundam, quarundam, quorundam, in the Genit. Plur. n being put instead of m for the better Sound, as it is for the same Reason in these Cases of Idem.

II. Some reckon among compound Pronouns Ego, Tu and Sui, with Ipse but in the best Books they are generally read separately; which seems necessary, because of te ipse and se ipse where the two Words are of different Cases.

III. Is is compounded with the Syllable dem, and contracted into Idem, the same, which is thus declined.

IV. Most of the other compound Pronouns are only to be found in certain Cases and Genders; as,

1. Of iste and hic is compounded, Nom. Isthic, isthac, isthoc vel isthuc, Acc. Isthunc, isthanc, isthoc vel isthuc. Abl. Isthoc, isthac, isthoc. Nom. and Acc. Plur. Neut. isthac.

2. Of Ecce and is is compounded Eccum, eccam; Plur. eccos, eccas: And from Ecce and Ille, Ellum, ellam; ellos, ellas, in the Accusatives.

3. Of Modus and is, hic, iste, and quis, are compounded these Genitives, Ejusmodi, hujusmodi, istiusmodi, cujusmodi; and sometimes with the Syllable ce put in the Middle, ejuscemodi, hujuscemodi, &c.

4. Of cum and these Ablatives, me, te, se, nobis, vobis, qui or quo, and quibus, are compounded mecum, tecum, secum, nobiscum, vobiscum, quicum, or quocum, and quibuscum.

5. To these add some Pronouns compounded with these syllabical Adjections, met, te, se, pte, cine, to make their Signification more pointed, and emphatical, as, Egomēt, tate, hujuste, meapte, hircine.

REMARKS on ENGLISH PRONOUNS.

1. In the Nominative, or Foregoing State (as the English Grammarians call it) we use, I, Thou, He, She, We, Ye, They, and Who: But in the other Cases (which they name the Following State) we use Me, Thee, Him, Her, Us, Them, and Whom.

2. When we speak of a Person, we use Who and Whom, whether we ask a Question or not; as, Who did it? The Man who did it. But if we speak of a Thing with a Question, we use What? as, What Book is that? Without a Question we use Which; as, The Book which you gave me. And then it is frequently understood; as, The Book you gave me.

NOTE, That What is often used, even without a Question, instead of The thing which, or That which; as, I know what you design, i. e. The Thing which, or that which you design. As on the contrary, when it refers to some particular Thing mentioned before, we make use of which, even with a Question; as, Give me the Book. Which Book? Which of the Books?

3. This makes in the Plural These, and That makes Those.

NOTE, That That is frequently used instead of Who, Whom, or Which; as, The Man that told you, The Man that we saw, The Book that I lent you.

4. We use My, Thy, Her, Our, Your, Their, when they are joined with Substantives, or the Word Own; and Mine, Thine, Hers, Ours, Yours, Theirs, when the Substantive is left out or understood; as, My Book, This Book is mine, &c.

NOTE, That with Own, or a Substantive beginning with a Vowel, we sometimes use Mine and Thine; as, My Eye, or Mine Eye; Thy own, or Thine own.

5. We often use Here, There, Where, compounded with these Particles, Of, By, Upon, About, In, With, instead of This, That, Which, and What, with these same Particles; as, Hereof, Hereby, Hereupon, Hereabouts, Herein, Herewith; for Of this, By this, Upon this, About this Place, In this, With this, &c.

6. Whose and Its are Genitives, instead of, Of whom, Of it; and it is a Fault to use Its for 'Tis or it is, as some do.

A VERB is a Part of Speech which signifies to be, to do, or to suffer. Or, a Verb is that Part of Speech which expresses what is affirmed or said of Things.

A Verb may be distinguished from any other Part of Speech these two Ways. 1. A Verb being the most necessary and essential Part of a Sentence, without which it cannot subsist, whatever Word with a Substantive Noun makes full Sense, or a Sentence, is a Verb; and that which does not make full Sense with it, is not a Verb. 2. Whatever Word with HE or IT SHALL before it makes Sense, is a Verb, otherwise not.

I. In most Verbs there are two Forms or VOICES, the ACTIVE ending in o, and the PASSIVE in or. The former expresses what is done by the Nominative or Person before it: The latter what is suffered by or done to the Nominative or Person before it; as, Amo, I love; Amor, I am loved.

II. The Moods are divided into Finite and Infinite. The first three, viz. the Indicative, Subjunctive and Imperative, are called FINITE, because they have certain fixt Terminations answering to certain Persons both Singular and plural. The last is called INFINITIVE or INFINITE, because it is not confined to one Number or Person more than another.

1. The INDICATIVE Mood affirms or denies positively; as, Amo, I love; Non Amo, I do not love: Or else asks a Question; as, An amas? Dost thou love? Annon amas? Dost thou not love?

2. The SUBJUNCTIVE Mood generally depends upon another Verb in the same Sentence, either going before or coming after, as, Si me ametis præcepta mea servate, If ye love me keep my Commandments.

[This Mood is commonly branched out into three Moods, viz. the Optative, the Subjunctive more strictly taken, and the Potential. 1. It is called OPTATIVE, when a Word importing a Wish, as, Utinam, Would to God, O si, O if, goes before it. 2. It is named SUBJUNCTIVE, when it is subjoined to some other Conjunction or Adverb, or to Interrogatives becoming Indefinites. (See Chap. IX.) 3. It is called POTENTIAL, when with the simple Affirmation of the Verb is also signified some Modification or Affection of it, such as a Power, Possibility, Liberty, Duty, Will, &c. The Signs whereof in our Language are May, Can, Might, Could, Would, Should and Had, (for Would have or Should have; as, they had repented, for would have.) But because the Terminations of these Moods are the same, we have comprehended them all under one, viz. the Subjunctive, to which with small Difficulty they they may be reduced. Otherwise, if we will constitute as many Moods as there are various Modifications wherewith a Verb or Affirmation can be affected, we must multiply them to a far greater Number, and so we shall have a Promissive, Hortative, Precative, Concessive, Mandative, Interrogative Mood; nay a Volitive and Debitive which is commonly included in the Potential. As for the Optative, 'tis plain that the Wish is not in the Verb itself, (which signifies only the Matter of it, or what is wished) but in the Verb Opto, which is understood, wish ut, uti or utinam, which really signify no more but That. And 'tis very probable that in like Manner some Verb, or other Word, may also be understood to what is called the Potential Mood, such as Ita est, Res ita est, Fieri potest ut, &c. as Vossius, Sanctius, Perizonius, and others do contend; tho' Mr. Johnson is of another Opinion.]

3. The IMPERATIVE Mood commands, exhorts or intreats; as, Ama, Love thou.

4. The INFINITIVE Mood expresses the Signification of the Verb in general, and is Englished by TO; as, Amare, to love.

III. The TENSES are either Simple or Compound. The SIMPLE Tenses are the Present, the Preter-perfect and Future.

- | | | |
|-----------------------|----------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1. The PRESENT | } Tense speaks of Time now | { Present.
Past.
To come. |
| 2. The PRETER-PERFECT | | |
| 3. The FUTURE | | |

The COMPOUND Tenses are the Preter-imperfect, and the Preter-pluperfect.

4. The PRETER-IMPERFECT refers to some past Time, and imports that the Thing was present and unfinished then; as, Amabam, I did love [viz. then.]

5. The PRETER-PLUPERFECT refers to some past Time, and imports that the Thing was past at or before that Time; as, Scripseram epistolam, I had written a Letter, [i. e. before that Time.]

There is also a Compound Future Tense called the FUTURE-PERFECT, or EXACT, which refers to some Time yet to come, and imports that a Thing as yet future shall be past and finished at or before that Time; as, Cum cenavero tu leges, when I shall have supped, [i. e. after Supper] you shall read. This Future is only in the Subjunctive Mood, and the Sign of it is Shall have; as the other Future, called the FUTURE-IMPERFECT, is only in the Indicative, which, when joined with another Future, imports that two Things yet future shall be contemporary, or exist at one Time; as, Cum cenabo tu leges, When I shall sup, [i. e. in Time of Supper] you shall read.

[And not only the Tenses, but even the MOODS themselves may be divided into SIMPLE and COMPOUND. I call the Indicative a simple Mood, because it simply affirms something of its Person or Nominative. But the other three Moods I call Compound, because they have some other Ideas or Modifications of our Thoughts superadded to the simple Signification of the Verb; such as, a Command, a Desire, Prohibition, Possibility, Liberty, Will, Duty, Wish, Concession, Supposition, Condition, Purpose, &c. These Modifications are either really included in the Verb; as, a Command, &c. in the Imperative, and according to Johnson, Power, Will, Duty, &c. in the Mood called Potential; or closely interwoven with it by the Help of a Conjunction, Adverb or other Verb express or understood: And because these also generally connote Time, they very frequently make all the Tenses of these Moods to become Compound Tenses. For, with respect to their Execution, they are generally future; but with respect to their Modal Signification, they may fall under any of the other Distinctions of Time as well as the Future. Thus, for Instance, Lege, Recitabou, with respect to its Execution, is future, but with respect to the Command it is present. Again in Legam, I may or can read, the Action (if done at all) must be future, but the Liberty or Possibility are present; and so of others. Now, as it seems evident, that from these Modifications of the Verb more than from the bare Execution of it, the Tenses of these Moods have at first been distinguished; so I am of Opinion that had Grammarians taken their Measures accordingly, they had not rendered this Matter so intricate as they have done. For some of them, as Sanctius, &c. determining the Times of these Moods by the Execution only, have made the whole Imperative and Subjunctive of the Future Time, and the Infinitive and Participles of all Times, or rather of no Time: Others, viz. Vossius, Linacer, Alvarus, Verepæus, &c. tho' they will not go so far as Sanctius, yet upon the same Grounds make Utinam legam the Future of the Optative; Utinam legerem the Present of it. By the same Rule they make a Future of the Potential in RIM; as, Citius crediderim, I should or shall sooner believe; and another of the Subjunctive in ISSEM; as, Juravit se illum statim interfectorum, nisi jusjurandum sibi dedisset; He swore he would presently kill him, if he should not swear to him, Cic. But, with all imaginable Deference to these great Men, I humbly think that these Tenses may be more easily accounted for, if we consider them as Compound, i. e. respecting one Time as to their Execution, and another as to the various Modifications, superadded to, or involved in their Signification. To instance in the two last Examples, (because they seem to have the greatest Difficulty) citius crediderim seems to impart these two Things, 1st, That I have and continue to have a Reason why I should not believe it; which Reason is of the Imperfect or past Time. And 2^{dly}, That I shall sooner have believed it, than another Thing, with respect to which it shall be past. For there are a great many Examples, where the Preterite in RIM hath the same Signification with the Future-perfect in RO; as, Si te inde exemerim, Terent. for exemero. See Voss. lib. v. cap. 15. and Aul. Gell. lib. xviii. cap. 2. As to the other Example, the Composition of two Times is yet more evident; for though jusjurandum dedisset be posterior, and consequently future with respect to Juravit, yet it is prior, not only to the Time of the Relation, but to interfecturum; to prevent which it behoved it necessarily to be past; and so of others. The same Rule in my Opinion will likewise hold in the Infinitive and Participles, which of themselves have always one fixed Time; and when they seem to be of another Time, that is not in them, but in the Verb that goes before them, or comes after them. Thus, for Instance, Scribere is always present, or co-existent with the Verb before it; and Scripsisse is always prior to the same Verb in all its Tenses; as Dicit, dixit, or dicet; juvat, juvit or juvabit Me scribere and Me scripsisse. So also the Participles have a fixed Time, present, past, or future; and when any Part of the Verb Sum is joined with them, they retain their own Times, and have these of that Verb superadded to them. But because there are innumerable Occasions of Speaking, wherein the nice Distinctions of Times are not necessary, therefore it frequently happens that they are promiscuously used: As I could evince by a great many Examples, not only in the Passive, but Active Voice, both in the Latin and other Languages, if there were Place for it. Which yet, in my Judgment, does not hinder, but that every Part of a Verb hath formally, and of its own Nature, a certain Time simple or compound, to which it is fixed and determined.]

IV. There are two NUMBERS, the SINGULAR and the PLURAL, answering to the same Numbers of a Noun or Pronoun.

V. There are three PERSONS in each Number; The FIRST speaks of itself, the SECOND is spoken to, and the THIRD is spoken of. The First hath only EGO and NOS, the Second only TU and VOS, and the Third any Substantive Noun singular and plural, put before the respective Terminations of the Verb, answering to them through all Voices, Moods and Tenses.

[A Verb hath the same Respect to its Nominative that an Adjective hath to its Substantive; and therefore, as an Adjective hath not properly either Genders or Numbers, but certain Terminations fitted for these of its Substantive, so a Verb hath properly neither Persons nor Numbers, but certain Terminations answering to the Persons and Numbers of its Nominative.]

NOTE, 1. That Ego and Tu are seldom express, because the Terminations of the Verb immediately discover them, without any Hazard of a Mistake.

NOTE, 2. That if a Substantive Noun be joined with Ego or Tu, the Verb is of the Person of these Pronouns, not of the Noun.

NOTE, 3. That in the Continuation of a Discourse, the third Person is also frequently understood, because easily known by what went before; and these Pronouns, Ille, ipse, iste, hic, is, idem, quis, and qui, do often supply the Place of it.

The ENGLISH SIGNS of the TENSES are,

Present	{	Ast. the Theme of the Verb, and est, et, or s; or for the greater Emphasis, do, dost, doth, or does before it.
		Pass. am, art, is, are, be, beest, with a Word in ed, en, t, &c.
Imper.	{	Ast. ed, edst, &c. or for the greater Emphasis, did, didst, before it.
		Pass. was, wast, were, wert, with a Word in ed, en, &c.
Perfect	{	Ast. have, hast, hath or has, with a Word in ed, en, &c. or as the Im.

Future	{	Ast. shall, will, shalt, wilt, with the Verb.

Present, may or can.

Imperf. might, could, would, should.

Perfect, might have, could have, would have, should have, or had.

Pluperf. may have, or might have, could have, would have, should have.

Secunda			E longum			Second			E long
Tertia			E breve			Third			E short
Quarta			I longum			Fourth			I long

The Common Characteristick of MARK by which these Conjugations are distinguished from one another, is one of these three Vowels A, E, I, before the RE of the Infinitive Active, tho' they also may be known by the same Vowels in several other Parts of them; for A long is most frequent in the First, E long in the Second, E or I short in the Third, and I long in the Fourth: Only E before bam, bas, bat, &c. and before mus and tis; and mur and mini, is always long in whatever Conjugation it is found.

But it is to be observed that the Preterites and Supines, and all the Parts formed from them, (because of the great Irregularity of their middle Syllables, and constant Agreement in their last Vowel, and in the Terminations arising from it in all Conjugations) cannot properly be said to be of any one Conjugation more than another; for there is nothing, for Example, in Fricui, Docui, Elicui, Amicui, or in Fricum, Docum, Elicum, Amicum, or in the Parts that come from them, whereby to distinguish their Conjugations.

¶ Note, That in the Examples of the Second, Third and Fourth Conjugations, we have omitted such Parts of the Passive Voice as are supplied by the Participle-perfect with the Verb Sum, viz. the Perfect and Plu-perfect of the Indicative, and the Perfect, Plu-perfect and Future of the Subjunctive, as being the same in all Conjugations with the Example of, the First, the Change of the Participle only excepted: But it is carefully to be observed, that the Participle being an Adjective, must agree in Gender, Number and Case with its Substantive, or (which is the same thing) with the Person before it.

1. REMARKS shewing when a LATIN Verb is to be rendered otherwise in ENGLISH than in the foregoing Examples.

WHEN the Continuation of a Thing is signified, the English Verb may be varied in all its Tenses by the Participle in ING, with the Verb Am; as,

Pres. I am reading,	} for {	I read.
Imp. I was reading,		I did read,
Perf. I have been reading,		I have read.
Plup. I had been reading,		I had read.
Fut. I shall be reading,		I shall read.

So likewise in the Passive Voice, The House is building, Domus ædificatur. The Lesson was prescribing, Lectio præscribebatur. Sometimes a is set before the Participle; as, While the House is a building, It is a doing, he is a dying.

2. When a Question is asked, the Nominative Case or Person is set after the Verb, or the Sign of the Verb; as, Love I? Do I love? Can I love? Should he be loved?

3. We have made THOU the second Person singular to distinguish it from the Plural. But it is customary with us, (as also with the French and others) tho' we speak but to one particular Person, to use the Plural YOU; and never THOU, but when we address ourselves to Almighty GOD, or otherwise when we signify Familiarity, Disdain or Contempt,

4. The Perfect of the Indicative is often englished as the Imperfect; as Nunquam amavi hunc hominem, I never loved [or, did love] this Man.

See a Train of Examples in Ovid. Metamorph. lib. 1. from v. 21 to 39.

5. The PERFECT Tense is frequently englished by HAD after Antequam, Postquam, Ubi or Ut for Postquam; as, Postquam superavimus Isthmum. After we had [were] past over the Isthmus, Ovid. Hac ubi dicta dedisti. When he had [spoken] these Words, Liv. Ut me salutavit, statim Roman profectus est. After he had saluted me, &c. Cic.

6. We have chosen MAY, CAN, MIGHT, COULD, &c. for the English of the SUBJUNCTIVE Mood, because these are the most frequent Signs of it, and distinguish it best from other Moods; but very often it is the same with the Indicative, save only that it hath some Conjunction or Indefinite Word before it; such as, If Seeing, Lest, That, Although, I wish, &c. as, Si amem, If I love; Ne amem, Lest I love; Causa est cur amem, It is the Cause why I love, Ovid. And frequently it hath both; as, Oro ut ames, I intreat that you may love, Idem.

7. The PRESENT of the Subjunctive after Quasi, Tanquam, and the like, is sometimes englished as the Imperfect; as, Quasi intelligant qualis sit, As if they understood what kind of Person he is, Cic.

8. When a Question is asked, the Present of the Subjunctive is frequently englished by SHALL or SHOULD; as, Eloquar an sileam? Shall I speak or be silent? Virg. Singula quid referam? Why should I mention every Thing? Ovid. Likewise after Non est quod; as, Non est (supple causa) quod eas, There is no Reason why you should go, or you need not go. Sometimes it is englished by WOULD; as, In facinus jurasse putes, You would think they had sworn to [commit] Wickedness, Ovid.

9. We have englished the PERFECT of the Subjunctive in RIM by MAY HAVE, (as, Ne frustra hi tales viri venerint, That such Men as these may not have come in vain, Cic. Forfitan audieris, You may perhaps have heard it :) to distinguish it from the Present and Pluperfect, by the Signs of which it is also most frequently englished; as, Ut sic dixerim, That I may so speak. Ubi ego audiverim? Where should I have heard it? Unus homo tantas strages ediderit? Could one Man make so great a Slaughter? Virg. Fortasse errarim, Perhaps I might be in an Error, Plin. Oratores quos viderim peritissimi, The ablest Orators I have seen [or could see] Quintil.

10. This Perfect in RIM sometimes inclines very much to a future Signification, and then it is englished by SHOULD, WOULD, COULD, CAN, WILL, SHALL; as, Citius crediderim, I should sooner believe, Juv. Lienter audierim, I would gladly hear, Cic. Ciceronem cuicumque eorum facile opposuerim, I could easily match Cicero with any of them, Quintil. Non facile dixerim, I cannot well tell, Cic. Nec tamen excluderim alios, And yet I will not exclude others, Plin. Si paululum modo quid te fugerit, ego perierim, If you but trip in the least, I shall be undone, Ter. but all those Ways of speaking, tho' indeed they respect the Future as to the Execution, yet they seem also to look a little beyond it, to a Time when their Futurity shall be past; and so come near in Signification to the Future in RO.

11. The Perfect of the Subjunctive after Quasi, Tanquam, and the like may sometimes be englished by HAD; as, Quasi affuerim, as if I had been present, Plaut. Perinde ac si jam vicerint, As if they had already overcome, Cic.

12. The PLU-PERFECT in ISSEM is sometimes englished by SHOULD as, Imperaret quod vellet, quodcumque imperavisset, se esse facturos, He might command what he pleased, whatever he commanded, [should command] they would do, Cæs. Fœdus istum est his legibus, ut cujus populi cives eo certamine vicissent, is alteri imperaret, An Agreement was made on these

Terms,

Terms, that that People whose Countrymen should be victorious in that Combat, should have the Sovereignty over the other, Liv. And this happens when a Thing is signified as future at a certain past Time referred to; and commonly takes Place, when what was formerly said directly is afterwards recited indirectly; as, Ne dubita, dabitur quodcumque optaris, Doubt not, whatsoever thou shalt choose shall be given thee, Ovid. Sol Phaethonti facturum se esse dixit, quicquid optasset, The Sun told Phaethon that he would do whatsoever he should choose, Cic. Where it is worth noticing, that what was the Future of the Subjunctive in the direct Speech, becomes the Pluperfect in the indirect Recital of it. See Turner's Exercises, p. 21, &c. But, as we have said, p. 30. the Plu-perfect, notwithstanding its coming in the Place of a Future, still retains its own proper compound Time, that is, it was prior to a Thing now past at the Time of the Recital by Cicero, tho' it was future when first spoken by the Sun. And therefore there is no Reason for making this Termination in issem a Future Tense, as Mr. Turner does.

13. Tho' the proper English of the FUTURE in RO be SHALL HAVE, yet generally the HAVE or the SHALL, and frequently both, are omitted as, Qui Antonium opprēsserit, is bellum confecerit, He who shall cut off Antony, shall put an End to the War, Cic. Haud desinam donec perfecero hoc, I will not give over till I have effected this, Ter. Si negaverit, If he denies it, Cic. Sometimes it is englished by WILL; as, Dixerit fortasse aliquis, Somebody will perhaps say, Cic. Aut consolando, aut consilio, aut re juvero, I will assist you either by comforting you, or with Counsel, or with Money, Idem. But tho' we thus render the Future in RO in our Language, and though (which is more material) very frequently it and the Future of the Indicative are used promiscuously, yet I cannot be persuaded that in any Instance the formal Significations of these are the same, as Mr. Johnson contends, p. 339. But still think with the great Vossius, that the Future in RO is always a Future perfect, that is, that there is a Time insinuated when a Thing yet future shall be finished or past; and that even when a Future of the Indicative is joined with it, which in Order of Time should be done before it; as, Pergratum mihi feceris, si disputabis, You shall have done, [shall do] me a great Favour, if you shall dispute, Cic. For what hinders that we may not faintly hint at the finishing of an Action yet future, without formally considering the finishing of another Action on which it depends; and on the contrary? But if the promiscuous Usage of Tenses one for another be sufficient to make them formally the same, then we shall confound all Tenses, and overthrow the very Arguments Mr. Johnson makes use of against Sanctius with respect to the Tenses of the Infinitive.

14. The TO of the INFINITIVE is generally omitted after May, Can, Might, Would, Could, (which are sometimes Verbs themselves, and not the bare Signs of them:) also after Must, Bid, Dare, Let, Help, and Make.

15. But what is most to be regarded in the Infinitive is, that when it hath an Accusative before it, it is commonly englished as the Indicative Mood, the Particle THAT being sometimes put before it, but oftner understood. And it is carefully to be remarked, that the same Tenses of the Infinitive are differently englished, according as the preceding Verb varies its Tenses; as will appear in the following Scheme.

{	Dicit me scribere,	He says [that] I write.
{	Dixit me scribere,	He said [that] I was writing.
{	Dicet me scribere,	He shall say [that] I am writing.

Dicit me scripſiſſe,	He ſays [that I wrote, or did write.
Dixit me ſcripſiſſe,	He ſaid [that] I had written.
Dicet me ſcripſiſſe,	He ſhall ſay [that] I have written, or did write.
Dicit me ſcripturum [eſſe,]	He ſays [that] I will write.
Dixit me ſcripturum [eſſe,]	He ſaid [that] I would write.
Dicet me ſcripturum [eſſe,]	He ſhall ſay [that] I will write.
Dicit me ſcripturum fuiſſe,]	He ſays [that] I would have written.
Dixit me ſcripturum fuiſſe,	He ſaid [that] I would have written.
Dicet me ſcripturum fuiſſe,	He ſhall ſay [that] I would have written.

It will be of great uſe to accuſtom the Learner to render the Infinitive after this Manner, both in Engliſh and Latin, eſpecially after he has been taught ſomething of Conſtruction: And then to cauſe him vary the Accuſative Me into Te, ſe, illum, hominem, ſœminam, &c. and theſe again into the Plural, Nos, vos, ſe, illos, homines, ſœminas, &c. But he muſt be careful to make the Participles agree with them in Gender, Number, and Caſe.

NOTE, 1. That when the preceeding Verb is of the Preſent or Future Tenſe, the Fut. of the Infinit. with eſſe, is rendered by SHALL or WILL; and when it is of the Perſect Tenſe, the Fut. of the Infinit. is rendered by WOULD, as in the Examples above; and ſometimes by SHOULD; as, Dixi te ſciturum eſſe, I ſaid that you ſhould know.

NOTE, 2. That when the preceeding Verb is of the Imperfect or Pluperfect Tenſes, the Engliſh of the Infinitive is the ſame as when it is of the Perſect.

16. The Perſect of the Indicative and Subjunctive Paſſive, made up with Sum or Sim, are engliſhed by AM, ART, IS, ARE, inſtead of HAVE BEEN, when the Thing is ſignified to be juſt now paſt; as, vulneratus ſum, I am wounded; Opus finitum eſt, the Work is finiſhed; Cum tempora mutata ſint, ſince the Times are changed.

17. When it is made up by fui, it is frequently engliſhed by WAS, WAST, WERE, WERT, as, Roma fuit capta, Rome was taken; As is alſo what is called the Pluperfect with eram and eſſem; as, Labor finitus erat, The Labour was finiſhed; Si labor finitus eſſet, If the Labour were finiſhed.

II. REMARKS on the LATIN Conjugations.

I A Great Part of the Paſſive Voice, and ſome of the Active, is made up of two of its own Participles and the Auxiliary Verb Sum, of which you have the full Conjugation, p. 52.) after this Manner:

The Participle Perſect with	{ Sum or fui eram or fueram ſim or fuerim eſſem or fuiſſem fuero eſſe or fuiſſe	} makes the	{ Perf. Plup. Perf. Plup. Fut. Perf.	{ Indicat. Subjunct. Infinit.	} Paſſive.
The Participle Fut. Aſt. with	{ eſſe or fuiſſe	}	Fut.	Infinit.	Active.

2. Having p. 30. laid it down as a probable Opinion, that every Part of a Verb, with all its Participles, have a certain fix Time ſimple or compound, which they formally and of their own Nature ſignify, it will perhaps be here expected that I ſhould account for that great Variety that is found in the the Passive Voice. To put this Matter in the clearest Light I am able, I must premise another Division of the Tenses, viz. into PASSING and PAST; or into such as import the Continuance of an Action or Thing, without regard to the ending or finishing of it; and such as import that the Thing is finished (or to be finished) and done. Of the first sort are the Present, Imperfect, and Future-imperfect; of the second sort are the Perfect, Pluperfect, and Future-perfect, See Page 29. From this Division of the Tenses, together with what we have formerly said, we are furnished with an easy Method of distinguishing all the Parts of the Passive. Thus for Instance, let the Subject of Discourse be the building of an House. 1. When I say, Domus aedificatur, I mean that it is just now a-building, but not finished. 2. When, Aedificabatur, that it was then, or at a certain past Time, a-building, but not then finished. 3. Aedificabitur, that some Time hence it shall be a-building, without any formal Regard to the Finishing of it. But when I make use of the Participle-perfect, I always signify a Thing compleated and ended; but with these Subdistinctions. 1. Aedificata est; I mean simply, that it is finished, without any Regard to the Time when. 2. Aedificata fuit; it is finished, and some Time since has intervened. 3. Aedificata erat; it was finished at a certain past Time referred to, with which it was contemporary. 4. Aedificata fuerat; it was finished before a certain Time past referred to, to which it was prior. 5. Aedificata erit; it shall be finished some Time hereafter, either without Regard to a particular Time when, or with respect to a certain Time yet future, with which its finishing shall be contemporary. 6. And lastly, Aedificata fuerit; it shall be finished and past before another Thing yet future, to which its finishing shall be prior. And thus we have nine different Times or Complications of Times, without confounding them with one another. But then, how comes it to pass that these are so frequently used promiscuously? I answer, That this proceeds from one or more of these four Reasons. 1. Because it very frequently happens in Discourse that we have no Occasion particularly to consider these various Relations and Complications of Times; and 'tis the same Thing to our Purpose whether the Thing is or was done, or a-doing; or whether it was done just now, or some Time ago; or whether another Thing was (or shall be) contemporary with, or prior to it; and the Matter being thus, we reckon ourselves at Liberty to take several Parts of the Verb at random, as being secure not only of being understood, but also that in these Circumstances whatever we pitch on, even when examined by the Rules above, shall be sound literally true. 2. It is usual with us to state ourselves as present with, and as it were Eye-witnesses of the Things we relate, tho' really they were transacted long before, whence it is that we frequently use the Present instead of some past Time. 3. 'Tis to be remarked that there are some Verbs, the Action whereof is in some Sense finished when begun; in which Case it will sometimes be all one whether we use the passing or past Tenses. And 4. The Present Tense (which strictly speaking is gone before we pronounce it) is generally taken in a larger Acceptation, and sometimes used for the Future, when we signify that the Execution is very near, or (according to Perizonius) when together with the Action we take in also the Preparation to it. The Brevity we are confined to will not allow us to illustrate these Things with Examples. But by them I think we may account for the promiscuous Usage of the Tenses, in both Voices; and what cannot be reduced to these, seems to be an Abuse of the Language, and being very rarely to be met with, and perhaps only among the Poets, ought not to be made a common Standard.

46 Rudiments of the Latin Tongue.

I shall only add for a Proof that these Tenses are not always to be used indifferently; that when we signify a Thing to be just now finished, we cannot use fui or fuero, or fuisse, but sum, sim, and esse.

3. Whether the Learner should be obliged to get by Heart these Parts of the Passive that are supplied by Sum, or if they should be referred to Construction, (to which they seem more naturally to belong) I leave to the Discretion of the Master, and therefore have put them in a smaller Character.

4. Besides these Parts which are thus made up, all the other Parts may be resolved into its own Participles, and the Verb Sum, tho' their Significations are not precisely the same; as,

Amo,	amabam,	amavi,	amaveram,	amabo,
Sum amans,	eram amans,	fui amans,	fuero amans,	ero amans, or sum amaturus.

Amor,	amabar,	amabor,	amer,	amarer.
Sum amatus,	eram amatus,	ero amatus,	amatus sim,	amatus essem.

5. The Participle in RUS with the Verb SUM is frequently used instead of the Future of the Indicative, especially if Purpose or Intention is signified; as, Profecturus sum, or Profecturus, I will go, or I am to go; and with Sim and essem instead of the Future imperfect, or Pluperfect of the Subjunctive; as, Non dubito quin sit facturus, I doubt not but he will do it. Non dubitavi quin esset facturus, I doubted not but he would do it; and not quin fecerit, or faceret, or fecisset.

6. We have not joined ERO with FUERO for the Future of the Subjunctive, because we thought it incongruous to couple Words of different Moods: Tho' it must be owned that it comes nearer in Signification to the Fut. of the Subjunctive than that of the Indicative, as, Ovid. Qui cum victus erit, is much the same as Victus fuerit: And so these ancient Lawyers, Scavola, Brutus and Manilius understood the Words of the Attinian Law, Quod subreptum erit, ejus rei aeterna auctoritas esto. But that a Preterite Time is there insinuated, is owing not to the Word erit, but to the Preterite-Participle with which it is joined, as they learnedly argue. See Aulus Gellius, lib. XVII. cap. 7.

7. We have omitted the Termination MINOR in the second Person Plural of the Imperative, not thinking it fit to make that an ordinary Standard (as the common Rudiments do) which is to be found only once or twice in Plautus. Epid. 5. 2. Facto opere arbitraminor. And Pseud. 2. 2. Pariter progredimur.

8. For the same Reason we have excluded the ancient Termination ASSO in the Future Subjunctive of the first Conjugation; as Excantasso in the Laws of the 12 Tables, Levasso in Ennius, Abjurasso, Invitasso, Cenasso, Irritasso, Servasso, &c. in Plautus; for Excantavero, Levavero, &c. to which may be added ESSO of the second Conjugation; as, Licessit, Idem; prohibessit, Cic. for Licuerit, prohibuerit; To these some add, Jusso for jussero in that of Virg. Aen. II. v. 467.

Cetera, qua jussu, mecum manus inferat arma.

But tho' I was once of that Opinion, yet I now incline with Vossius to think that it is only a Syncope; but not for the Reason brought for it by him, namely, that the other Examples in ssu change r into ss; as, Levaro, levasso; but because I believe these old Futures were formed not from the common Futures in ero, as he supposes, but from the second Person sing. of the Present of the Indic. by adding so; as, levas, levasso; prohibes, prohibesso: According to which Rule Jubeo must have formed jubeesso, not jusso.

9. Upon

9. Upon the same Account we have omitted the Future of the Infinitive in ASSERE formed from ASSO; as, Impetrassere, reconciliassere, expugnassere, in Plautus, for impetraturum esse, &c.

10. Tho' we frequently meet with amaturus and amatus esse vel fuisse, &c. in the Nominative, as, Dicitur amaturus esse, yet we have contented ourselves with the Accusative amaturum and amatum, as most common, reserving the Distinction between these to Construction. [See Page 77.]

11. The Future of the Infinitive Passive is made up of the First Supine and IRI the Infinitive Passive of EO: And therefore it is not varied in Numbers and Genders, as the Parts made up of the Participle with Sum.

12. But the Supine with IRE is not the Future of the Infinitive Active, as some teach; for such Phrases as these, Amatum ire. Doctum ire, are rather of the Present than Future Tense.

13. The Participle in DUS with esse and fuisse, is not properly the Future of the Infinitive Passive, as is commonly believed: For it does not so much import Futurity, as Necessity, Duty or Merit. For there is a great Difference between these two Sentences, Dicit literas à se scriptum iri, and Dicit literas à se scribendas esse; the first signifying, That a Letter will be written by him, or That he will write a Letter; and the second, That a Letter must be written by him, or, He is obliged to write a Letter. For tho' Sanctius and Messieurs de Port Royal contend that this Participle is sometimes used for simple Futurity, yet I think Perizonius and Johnson have clearly evinced the contrary.

14. It is to be noted, That the Imperative Mood wants the first Person both Singular and Plural, because no Man can or needs command or exhort himself: Or, if he does, he must juggle himself out of the first into the second Person, as in that of Catullus speaking to himself, At tu Catulle, destinatus obdura. But you Catullus, continue obstinate.

15. The Present of the Subjunctive is most frequently used instead of the Imperative, especially in forbidding, after, Ne, nemo, nullus, &c. as, Valeas, Farewell, for vale. Ne facias, Do it not, rather than Ne fac. And sometimes the Future of the Subjunctive; as, Tu videris, See you to it. Ne dixeris, Don't say it. And sometimes also the Future of the Indicative; as Non occides, Thou shalt not kill, for Ne occide, or occidito. Sed valebis, meaque negotia videbis, Cic. i. e. Sed vale, meaque negotia vide. Referes ergo hac & nuncius tibi Pelida genitori, Virg. i. e. refer & ito. But it is to be remarked that none of these are proper Imperatives; for to the first is understood, oro, rogo, peto, or the like with ut; as also to the second, with ut understood, or ne express; and the third is only a Command by Consequence; because of the Authority, Influence, or Power of the Speaker. For which Reason, and to keep the Moods from interfering with one another, we have excluded these from the Imperative: Tho' the common Rudiments take in the first, and Alvarus the second and third. However it is observable that we shew most Civility and Respect when we use the Subjunctive, and most Authority by the Future of the Indicative, and NTO of the Imperative; which last is the ordinary Strain in which Laws are delivered. But this Rule is not always followed.

16. The RIS of the second Person Passive is more usual than RE; and PRUNT of the Perfect of the Indicative Active than ERE; especially in prose, in which, if a Vowel follow, they are very rarely to be met with.

III. REMARKS upon ENGLISH Verbs.

1. AN English Verb hath only two Tenses, distinguished by different Terminations, and both in the Active Voice, viz. the Present and Preterite. The Present is the Verb itself, and the Preterite is commonly made by adding ed to it, or d, when it ends in e; as, Fill, filled; Love, loved.

2. All the other Parts of the Active, and the whole Passive, is made up of the Auxiliary Verbs Do, Have, Shall, Will, May, Can, and Am; as in Page 31. and in the Example, To love, Page 32. &c.

3. An English Verb hath different Terminations for the Persons of the singular Number. The Present hath three or four. The first Person is the Verb itself; the second ends in est or st; the third in eth, es or s. The Preterite hath only two; the first commonly ending in ed, and the second in est or st. But the third Person singular of the Preterite, and all the Persons plural, both of it and the Present, cannot otherwise be distinguished than by the Nominatives before them; which therefore can never be omitted, as in the Latin.

4. We have two Participles, the Present ending always in ing, and the Preterite ending regularly in ed, but very frequently in en and t.

5. There are a great many Irregular English Verbs; but it is to be noted, 1. That that Irregularity relates only to the Termination of the Preterite Tense, and the Passive Participle. 2. That it reaches only such Words as are native and originally English. 3. That it is to be found only in Words of one Syllable, or derived from Words of one Syllable. 4. That where the Preterite is regular the Passive Participle is the same with it. Except Hewed, Mowed, Shewed, Snowed, Sowed; which have Hewn, Mown, Shown, Snown, Sown.

6. These Irregularities may be reduced to the following Heads:

(1.) The d is changed into t after c, ch, sh, f, k, p, x; and after s and th, when pronounced hard; and sometimes after l, m, n, r, when a short Vowel goes before it; as, Plac't, Snatch't, Fish't, Walk't, Dwelt, Smelt. But when a long Vowel goes before p, it is either shortened, or changed into a short one; as Kept, Slept, Wept, Crept, Swept, Leapt, from keep, sleep, weep, creep, sweep, leap; as also sometimes before l, m, n, r, and v turned into f; as felt, Dream, dreamt; Mean, meant; Leave, left.

(2) When the Present ends in d or t, the Preterite is sometimes the same with it; as, Read, Cast, Hurt, Burst, Hit, Quit; and when two Vowels precede, the last is left out; as, Spread, spred; Lead, led; Feed, fed; Bleed, bled; Meet, met. When a Consonant comes before d, it is sometimes changed into t; as, Bend, bent; Lend, lent; Send, sent; Rend, rent; Gird, girt.

(3.) Most of the other irregular Verbs may be comprehended under the following Lists.

I. Such as have their Preterite and Participle Passive the same.

Awake	awoke.	Find,	found.	Pay,	paid.	Sting,	stung.
Abide,	abode.	Flee,	fled.	Say,	said.	Swing,	swung.
Beseech,	befought.	Fling.	flung.	Seek,	sought.	Swim,	swum.
Bind,	bound.	Grind,	ground.	Sell,	sold.	Teach,	taught.
Bring,	brought.	Gild,	gilt.	Sit,	sat.	Tell,	told.
Buy,	bought.	Hang,	hung.	Shine,	shone.	Think,	thought.
Catch,	caught.	Hear,	heard.	Spin,	spun.	Work,	wrought.
Dig,	dug.	Lay,	laid.	Spring,	sprung.	Win,	won.
Drink,	drunk.	Lose,	lost.	Stand,	stood.	Wind,	wound.
Fight,	fought.	Make,	made.	Stick,	stuck.	Wring,	wrung.

II. Such as have the Preterite and Participle different; as,

Bear, bore, born.	Freeze, froze, frozen.	Shrink, shrank, shrunk.
Begin, began, begun.	Get, got, gotten.	Sink, sank, sunk.
Bid, bad, bidden.	Give, gave, given.	Slay, slew, slain.
Beat, beat, beaten.	Go, went, gone.	Slide, slid, sliddden.
Bite, bit, bitten.	Grow, grew, grown.	Smite, smote, smitten.
Blow, blew, blown.	Hew, hewed, hewen.	Strike, struck, stricken.
Chide, chid, chidden.	Hide, hid, hidden.	Speak, spoke, spoken.
Choose, chose, chosen.	Hold, held, holden.	Spit, spat, spitten.
Cleave, clove, cleft.	Know, knew, known.	Strive, strove, striven.
Come, came, come.	Ly, lay, lay'n.	Swear, swore, sworn.
Crow, crew, crow'd.	Ride, rode, ridden.	Swell, swell'd, swoln.
Dare, durst, dared.	Ring, rang, rung.	Take, took, taken.
Do, did, done.	Rise, rose, risen.	Tear, tore, torn.
Draw, drew, drawn.	Run, ran, run.	Thrive, throve, thriven.
Drive, drove, driven.	See, saw, seen.	Throw, threw, thrown.
Eat, eat, eaten.	Seeth, sod, sodden.	Tread, trode, trodden.
Fall, fell, fallen.	Shake, shook, shaken.	Wear, wore, worn.
Fly, flew, flown.	Shear, shorn, shorn.	Weave, wove, woven.
Forake, forlook, forsaken.	Shoot, shot, shotten.	Write, wrote, written.

These Preterites, Bare, Share, Sware, Tare, Ware, Clave, Gat, Begat, For-gat, Brake, Spake, Slang, Sprang, Swang, Wan, Stank, Sank, are seldom used. But, Beseech'd, Catcht, Work'd, Digged, Gilded, Girded, Hang'd, Swam, Writ, for Besought, Caught, &c. are frequently to be met with.

NOTE, 1. That when the Verb ends in one Consonant, that Consonant is for the most Part doubled before ing, ed, est, edst and eth, as, Worship, worshipping, worshipped, worshippeth, worshippedst, worshippeth: As also before en; as, Bid, bidden.

NOTE, 2. That the APOSTROPHUS (which was become too common in English Verbs; as, Lov'd, lov'st, for loved, love'st.) begins now to be dis-used by the most polite Writers in Prose: but Poets still use it, tho' not so much as formerly.

NOTE, 3. That the Preterite Active and the Participle Passive (when one Word serves for both) are thus distinguished: When it hath nothing before it but the Nominative alone, or have or had with it, it is the Preterite Active; but when it hath any Part of the helping Verb AM, it is the Participle Passive.

EXCEPT Come, Gone, Run, Set, Risen, Fallen, Grown, Withered; and such like Intransitive Verbs, which have frequently the Passive Signs AM, ART, &c. instead of HAVE in the Perfect Tense; and WAS, WAST, &c. instead of HAD in the Pluperfect; as, Veni, I am come; Veneram, I was come.

NOTE, 4. That tho' the Latin Perfect frequently answers both to HAVE and DID, (or the Preterite Termination ED, &c.) yet they seem to be thus distinguished. DID or ED, &c. respects a certain past Time, in which the thing was finished, or a-finishing; as, I wrote, or did write yesterday: HAVE either speaks of a Thing as but just now past, or at least does not refer to any particular Time that it happened at; as, I have written my Letter, i.e. just now; I have read of Julius Cæsar, i.e. some time or other. The first of these is called the Preterperfect Definite, and the other the Preterperfect Indefinite.

NOTE, 4. That SHALL and WILL by Mr. Brightland are thus distinguished;

50 Rudiments of the Latin Tongue,

In the First Person simply SHALL foretells;
In WILL a Threat, or else a Promise dwells.
SHALL in the Second and the Third does threat;
WILL simply then foretells the future Feat.

By Mr. Turner thus,

WILL imports the Will or Purpose of the Person it is joined with;
SHALL implies the Will of another, who promises or threatens to do the Thing, or cause it to be done, permits it, commands it, or the like.

De Formatione Verborum.

QUatuor sunt Terminationes Verbi, à quibus re-liquæ omnes formantur; sciz.
o Præsentis, i Præteriti, um Supini; & re Infinitivi, hoc modo;

1. Ab o formantur am & em.

2. Ab i formantur ram, rim, ro, ssem, sse.

3. Ab um formantur u, us,
& rus.

4. A re formantur reliquæ omnes; nempe bam, bo, rem, a, e, i, ns, dus, dum, di, do.

Of the Formation of Verbs.

THERE are four Terminations of a Verb, from which all the rest are formed; namely, o of the Present, i of the Preterite, um of the Supine, and re of the Infinitive, after this Manner;

1. From o are formed am and em.

2. From i, ram, rim, ro, ssem and sse.

3. U, us and rus are formed from um.

4. All other Parts from re do come; as bam, bo, rem, a, e, and i, ns, and dus, dum, do and di.

In every complete Verb there are commonly four PRINCIPAL PARTS, viz. the Present of the Indicative in O, the Preterite or Perfect in I, the first Supine in UM, and the Present of the Infinitive in RE. The first (which is therefore called the THEME or Root of the Verb) gives Origin to the whole Verb, either mediately or immediately. The Preterite, the first Supine, and the Present of the Infinitive come from it immediately, and all the rest from them; except the Future of the Indicative in am, and the Present of the Subjunctive in em or am, which by this Scheme are also formed immediately from the Present in O.

It is to be noted, that the Preterites and Supines of the First Conjugation end commonly in avi and atum, of the Second in ui and itum, and of the Fourth in iui and itum. But the Third Conjugation cannot be reduced to any general Rule, and there are a great many Exceptions in the other three, which are therefore to be learned by daily Practice, 'till the Scholar is advanced to that Part of Grammar that treats particularly of them.

But the Present of the Infinitive, and all the other Parts of the Verb, are regularly formed after one fixt and uniform Manner.

In the foregoing Rules of Formation, I have for the Ease of the Memory, put the Terminations instead of the Moods and Tenses; but for the great Plainness they may be thus expressed,

I. From the Present of the Indicative are formed the Future of the Indicative of the Third and Fourth Conjugations in am, and the Present of the Subjunctive of the First in em, and of the other three in am.

II. From the Perfect of the Indicative are formed the Pluperfect of it, the Perfect, Pluperfect and Future of the Subjunctive, and the Perfect of the Infinitive.

III. From the First Supine is formed the Last Supine, the Participle Perfect and Future Active.

IV. From the Present of the Infinitive are formed the Imperfect of the Indicative, the Future of the same when it ends in BO, (viz. in the first and second Conjugations,) the Imperfect of the Subjunctive, the Imperative, the Participles Present and Future Passive, and the Gerunds.

NOTE, 1. That Verbs in IO of the Third Conjugation retain i before ant, unto, ebam, am, ens, endus, endum; but lose it in the Present of the Infinitive and Imperfect of the Subjunctive.

NOTE, 2. That the last Person Plur. of the Imperative may be formed by adding o to the same Person of the Present of the Indicative; as, Amant, amanto; docent, docento.

NOTE, 3. That the Passive Voice is formed from the same Tenses of the Active, (except where Sum is used) by adding r to o, or changing m into r.

NOTE, 4. That the Present of the Infinitive Passive of the Third Conjugation may be formed by taking s from the Second Person of the Present of the Indicative Active; as, legis, legi; or when the Verb is Deponent, by changing or, or ior, into i; as Profiscor, profiscisci; mori, mori.

NOTE, 5. That the Present of the Infinitive Active, and the Second Person of the Indicative and Imperative Passive in re, are always the same.

NOTE, 6. That the Second Person Plural of the Present of the Indicative, and of the Imperative, are the same in the Passive Voice.

NOTE, 7. That where any of the Principal Parts are wanting, these Parts are commonly wanting that come from them. For which Reason Grammarians give Supines to a great many Verbs which yet are not to be found in any Author, because the Participles formed from them are found; and they suppose likewise all Deponent Verbs of old have had the Active Voice, and consequently Supines, tho' now lost.

NOTE, 8. That all Verbs of the Second Conjugation end in eo, and all Verbs of the Fourth in io, except eo and queo. There are Eight Verbs in eo of the First Conjugation, viz. beo, creo, scree, meo, calceo, laqueo, nauseo, nucleo. There are Twenty four in io of the First, viz. amplio, basio, brevio, concilio, crucio, furio, glacio, bio, lanio, luxurio, macio, nuncio, prio, propitio, radio, repudio, satio, saucio, fecio, sommio, spolio, suavio, or rather suavior, vario, vitio; with some other less common; as, decurio, succenturio, fascio, retatio, strio, tertio, &c. and Twelve of the Third, viz. capi, facio, jacio, lacio, specio, sodio, fugio, cupio, rapio, sapio, pario, quatio, with their Compounds.

It is not, in my Opinion, necessary to trouble the Learner with a particular Account how the respective Changes in the Moods, Tenses, Numbers and Persons are made; they being obvious from the Examples above, in which I have distinguished them from the Body, or Essential Part of the Verb by a Division or Hyphen. And perhaps this alone without any other particular Rule, might be a sufficient Direction. For to conjugate one Verb by the Example of another, we have no more to do, but instead of the Essential Part of the one (which is all that stands before o, eo, or io, of the Present of the Indicative) to substitute the Essential Part of the other, and then to add to it the additional Syllables it receives in Conjugation as before. Only we are to advert, 1. That in the Presentes and Supines, and the Parts that come from them, we are to reckon all before i and um for the Body of the Verb, adding the usual Syllable to it, as in the Active Voice of Lego. 2. In Verbs in io we are to retain or omit the i, as in Note 1.

There is yet another Way of the Formation of Verbs, differing only from the First Method in this, that what Parts according to it are formed from the Infinitive, are by this formed from the First or Second Person of the Present of the Indicative. But tho' this may be the more natural Way, yet the other is more easy and uniform.

The Compounds of SUM are, Adsum, absum, desum, intersum, praesum, obsum, subsum, supersum, insum, prosum & possum. The first eight are conjugated as the simple SUM: Insum wants the Preterite and its Descendents; for we do not use Insum, insuisti, insueram, &c.

¶ PROSUM, To do good, has a d where SUM begins with e; as,

IND. { Pr. Pro-sum, prod-es, prod-est: pro-sumus, prod-estis, pro-sunt.
Im. Prod-eram, prod-cras; prod-erat: prod-eramus, &c.

SUB. Im. Prod-essem, prod-esses, prod-esset: prod-essemus, &c.

IMPERAT. Prod-esto, prod-este. INFINIT. Pres. Prod-esse.

POSSUM should be pot-sum, (as being compounded of potis, able, and Sum) but for the better Sound t is changed into s before another, and retained before any other Letter: And for the same Reason s is always taken away. Potsem and Posse are contracted for Potessem, potesse, which yet are to be found in some old Authors; thus, ¶ Possum, potui, posse, To be able.

NOTE, 1. That in general EO is a Verb of the fourth Conjugation.

NOTE, 2. That of old Verbs of the Fourth had their Imperfect in ibam, and Future in ibo, of which there are many Examples in Plautus and Terence, and some in Virgil and Horace.

After the same Manner the Compounds of EO are conjugated, viz. Adeo, abeo, exeo, obeo, redeo, subeo, perseo, coeo, inco, praeo, anteo, prodeo, praetero, transeo; Adibam, adibo, adiens, adeuntis, adendum, &c. But ambio is a regular Verb of the Fourth Conjugation.

NOTE,

NOTE, That in the Compounds ivi, ivisti, &c. are seldom used, but they are contracted into ii, iisti; as, adii, adisti, and sometimes adisti: So adieram, adierim, &c.

QUEO, I can, and NEQUEO, I cannot, are conjugated the same Way as EO; they only want the Imperative and the Gerunds; and the Participles are scarcely in use.

NOTE,

NOTE, That Fero is a Verb of the Third Conjugation, Fers, fert, fertis, fertō, ferte. ferrem, ferre, ferris, fertur, fertor being contracted of Fais, ferit, feruis, ferito, ferite, fererem, ferere, fereris, feritur and feritor.

Also Fer is contracted of fere; which in like Manner has happened to the Imperatives of Dico, duco, facio, they having dic, duc, fac, in Read of dice, duce, face.

The Compounds of Fero are conjugated the same Way as the Simple; as, Affero, attuli, allatum; Aufero, abstuli, ablatum; Differo, distuli, dilatum; Confero, contuli, collatum; Infero, intuli, illatum; Offero, obtuli, oblatum; Effero, extuli, elatum; So Circumfero, perfero, transfero, defero, profero, antefero, praefero.

Factu.

* Tho' Fi is rejected by some Grammarians of great Note, yet we have given it Place here, not only because it is to be found in Plautus, but also in Horace, Lib. 2. Sat 3, ver. 38. Fi cognitor ipse, according to the best MSS. and Editions.

NOTE, 1.

NOTE, 1. That Fio is the Passive of Facio, To make, (which is regular) instead of Facior, which is not in use: Yet the Compounds of Facio, which change a into i, are regular; as, afficio, affectus, affici; perficio, perfectus, perfici.

NOTE, 2. That the Compounds of Facio, with Verbs, Nouns or Adverbs, retain the a, and have their Imperat. Aët. fac, and their Passive Form (when used) fio; as, Calefacio, lucrifacio, benefacio; calefac, calefio, &c. But these compounded with a Preposition change the a into i, and have fice and ficior. There are some compounded of Facio and a Noun, where facio is changed into fico of the First Conjugation; as, magnifico, significo.

To the Irregular Verbs may be reduced EDO, to eat, which in some of its Parts falls in with the Verb Sum; thus,

IND. Pres. Edo, es, est; - - - - - estis, - - - -

SUB. Imp. Essem, esses, esset; essemus, essetis, essent.

IMP. Es vel esto, - - - - - este vel estote. INFIN. Esse.

Likewise its Compounds, Comedo, comes, comest, &c. and Exedo, exes, exest, &c. But all these may likewise be regularly conjugated, Edo, edis, edit, &c. Ederem, ederes, ederet, &c.

Of Defective Verbs.

THOUGH some of the Irregular Verbs already mentioned want some of their Parts, and upon that Account may be called also Defective Verbs, yet by DEFECTIVE Verbs here we chiefly understand such as want considerable Branches, or are used only in few Tenses and Persons. We shall set down these that most frequently occur. I. AIO, I say; INQUAM, I say; FOREM, I should be; AUSIM, I dare; FAXIM, I'll see to it, or I will do it; AVE and SALVE, God save you, Hail, Good-morrow; CEDO, tell, or give me; QUÆSO, I pray.

IND. { Pres. Aio, ais, ait; - - - - - aiunt.

IMPERAT. inque, -ito.

PARTICIP. Pres. inquiens.

SUB. { Imp. } Forem, fores, foret; foremus, foretis, forent.
Plus. }

INF. Fore, to be, or to be about to be, the same with futurum esse.

SUB. { Pres. Ausim, ausis, ausit; - - -
Perf. Faxim, faxis, faxit; - - - faxint.
Fut. Faxo, faxis, faxit; - - - faxitis, faxint.

NOTE, That faxim and faxo are used instead of fecerim and fecero.

IMPERAT. { Ave, } avete, } INF. { avere.
Aveto, } avetote, } salvere.
Salve, } salvete, }
Salveto, } salvetote, }
Cedo, } cedit. }

IND. Pres. Quæso, quæsumus.

II. These three Verbs ODI, MEMINI, COEPI, have only the Preterite Tense and what is formed from it, and therefore are by some called PRETERITIVE Verbs; thus,

Odi, oderam, odegim, odissem, odero, odisse.

Memini, memineram, meminirim, meminissem, meminero, meminisse.

Cæpi, cæperam, cæperim, cæpissim, cæpero, cæpisse.

But under these they comprehend also the Signification of the other Tenses; as, Memini, I remember, or I have remembered; Memineram, I remembered, or I had remembered, &c. So Odi, I hate, or I have hated; Cæpi, I begin, or I have begun. Tho' I am not fully satisfied as to this last, for I do not know any Example where Cæpi doth clearly signify the Present Tense.

Memini hath also the Imperative Memento, Remember thou; Memento-te, Remember ye. Some add Meminens, Remembring, which is scarcely to be imitated.

To these some add NOVI, because it frequently hath the Signification of the Present, I know, as well as, I have known, tho' it comes from Nosco, which is complete.

NOTE, 1. That Odiens is to be found in Petronius; Odiatur in Seneca; Cæpio in Plautus and Terence. See Voss. Analog. Lib. III. Cap. 39.

NOTE, 2. That the Participles Cæptus and Osus, with its Compounds Perosus, Exosus, are in use among the best Authors; but Perodj and Exodi are not.

III. Faris, To speak, wants the first Person of the Present Indic. and perhaps the whole Present of the Subjunctive, for we do not say For or Fer, and rarely Feris, setur, &c. So likewise Daris and Deris, but not Dor or Der, To be given. The Compounds of the first; as, Effor, affor, are rare; but the Compounds of the other; as, Addor, Reddor, are common.

IV. Most of the other Defective Verbs are but single Words, and rarely to be found, but among Poets; as, Infit, he begins; Desit, it is wanting. Some are compounded of a Verb with the Conjunction Si, as Sis for Si vis, If thou wilt; Sultis, for Si vultis, If ye will; Sodes, for Si audes, If thou darest.

Of Impersonal Verbs.

These are also a kind of Defective Verbs, which for the most part are used only in the Third Person Sing. They have the Sign IT before them in English; as, Pœnitet, it repents; Placet, it pleases: And are thus conjugated;

	Præs.	Imperf.	Perfect.	Plus.	Futur.
IND.	Pœnitet,	pœnitebat,	pœnituit,	pœnituerat,	pœnitebit.
SUB.	Pœniteat,	pœniteret,	pœnituerit,	pœnituisset,	pœnituerit.
INF.	Pœnitere,	-	pœnituisse.

Most Verbs may be used impersonally in the Passive Voice, especially such as otherwise have no Passive; as,

	Præs.	Imperf.	Perfect.	Plusquam.	Fut.
Ind.	Pugnatur, pugnabatur, pugnatum		est, fuit, -atum	crat, fuerat	pugnabitur.
Sub.	Pugnetur, pugnaretur, pugnatum		sit, fuerit, -atum	esset, fuisset, -atum	fuerit.
Inf.	Pugnari, - - - pugnatum		esse, fuisse, - - -		pugnatum iri.

NOTE, 1. That IMPERSONALS are applied to any Person or Number, by putting that which stands before other Verbs, after the Impersonals in the Cases which they govern; as, pœnitēt me, te, illum; I repent, thou repentest, he repenteth, instead of Ego pœniteo, &c. which is scarcely Latin. Placet mihi, tibi, illi, It pleases me, thee, him; or I please, thou pleasest, &c. pugnatur a me, a te, ab illo, I fight, thou fightest, he fighteth, &c.

NOTE, 2. That Impersonals are not used in the Imperative, but instead of it we take the Subjunctive.

NOTE, 3. That Impersonal Verbs are very often used personally, especially in the Plural Number; as, Accidit, Contingit, Evenit, Pertinet, Decet, Dolet, Licet, Nocet, Fatet, Placet, Praestat, &c. For we say, Tu mihi sola places; Nulli noceō; Multa homini accidunt, contingunt, eveniunt; Parvum parva decet, &c. But it is to be remarked that they are generally Impersonal, when an Infinitive or Subjunctive Mood follows; for tho' I can say, Tu places mihi, yet I cannot say, Si places audire, but si placet tibi audire. Again, we cannot say, Ego contigi esse domi, but Me contigit esse domi, or Mihi contigit esse domi. Likewise Evenit illum mori, or Ut ille moreretur; but not Ille evenit mori.

[I shall not here enquire what is the Word understood to Impersonal Verbs, whether it is a Noun of the like Signification; as, Pugna pugnatur, or the Word Res or Negotium, or the Infinitive Mood. Tho' I incline to think that any one of these will not answer to them all, but that there are some to which the first, to others the second, and to others the third, may be most fitly understood, as the Nature of the Verb and good Sense shall direct us. This we are sure of, that the Word understood can never be a Person properly so called, but a Thing; for which Reason, and the Want of the two primary Persons, viz. the first and second, they are called Impersonal, tho' some are much offended with the Name.]

C A P. IV. De Participio.

Tria sunt præcipuè consideranda in Participio, viz. Tempus, Significatio, & Declinatio.

I. Tempora Participiorum sunt tria, Præsens, Præteritum & Futurum.

Participia	{	Præf.	{	Temp. de- sinent in	{	ns.
		Præt.				tus, sus, xus.
		Fut.				rus, dus.

II. Significatio Participiorum est vel Activa vel Passiva, vel Neutra, ad modum verborum à quibus descendunt.

C H A P. IV. Of Participle.

There are three Things especially to be considered in a Participle, viz. Time, Signification and Declension.

I. The Tenses of Participles are three, the Present, Preterite and Future.

Particip. of the	{	Præf.	{	Tense end in	{	ns.
		Pret.				tus, sus, xus.
		Fut.				rus, dus.

II. The Signification of Participles is either Active or Passive, or Neuter, after the Manner of the Verbs from which they come.

Participia { in ns & rus plerumque sunt Activa.
 { in us semper Passiva.
 { in tus, sus, xus, plerumque sunt Passiva, interdum verò Activa, vel etiam Communia.

Participles { in ns and rus are generally Active.
 { in us always Passive.
 { in tus, sus, xus, are generally Passive, sometimes Active, or also Common.

III. Omnia Participia sunt Adjectiva: quæ desinunt in ns sunt Tertiæ Declinationis, reliqua autem omnia Primæ & Secundæ, III. All Participles are Adjectives: These which end in ns are of the Third Declension, but all the rest are of the First and Second.

A PARTICIPLE is a Kind of Adjective formed from a Verb, which in its Signification always imports some Time.

It is so called, because it partakes of a Noun and a Verb, having Genders and Cases from the one, Time and Signification from the other, and Number from both.

1. ACTIVE Verbs [See Chap. IX.] have two Participles, one of the Present Time ending in ns; as, Amans, Loving: And another of the Future ending in rus; as, Amaturus, About to love.

2. PASSIVE Verbs have likewise two Participles, one of the Preterite ending in tus, sus or xus; as Amatus, Loved; Visus, Seen; Flexus, Bow-ed, (to which some add one in uus, viz. Mortuus Dead:) And another of the Future ending in us; as Amandus, To be loved.

3. NEUTER Verbs have two Participles, as the Active; as Sedens, Sitting, Sessurus, About to sit.

4. ACTIVE INTRANSITIVE Verbs have frequently three Participles, as Carens, Wanting; Cariturus, About to want, Carendus, To be wanted; Dolens, Grieving; Doliturus, About to grieve, Dolendus, To be grieved: And sometimes four; as Vigilans, Watching; Vigilaturus, About to watch, Vigilatus, Watched; Vigilandus, To be watched.

5. DEPONENT and COMMON Verbs have generally four Participles; as, Loquens, Speaking; Locuturus, About to speak, Locutus, Having spoken, Loquendus, To be spoken; Dignans, Vouchsafing, Dignaturus, About to vouchsafe, Dignatus, Having vouchsafed, or being vouchsafed, Dignandus, To be vouchsafed.

NOTE, 1. That in some Dependent Verbs the Participle Perfect hath both an Active and Passive Signification, tho' that of the Verb itself is only Active; as, Testatus, having testified, or being testified. So Mentitus, Meditated, Oblitus, &c.

NOTE, 2. That it is essential to a Participle, I. That it come immediately from a Verb. II. That in its Signification it also include Time. Therefore Tunicatus, Coated, Larvatus, Masked; and such like, are not Participles, because they come from Nouns, and not from Verbs. And Ignorant, Elegans, Neat, Circumspectus, Circumspect, Tacitus, Silent, Proflus, Profuse, Prodigal, &c. are not Participles, because they do not import Time.

There are a Kind of Adjective Nouns ending in UNDUS, which approach very near to the Nature of Participles, such as Errabundus, Ludibundus, Populabundus. They are formed from the Imperf. of the Indic. and their Signification is much the same with the Participle of the Present Time; only they signify Abundance, or a great deal of the Action, according to A. Gellius, Lib. 2. Cap. 15. or according to others, they signify the same with the Participles of Frequentative Verbs, when these are not in Use. See Gronovius on Gellius, as above cited.

APPENDIX of Gerunds and Supines.

GERUNDS and SUPINES (which, because of their near Relation to Verbs, are by some not improperly called Participial Words) are a Sort of Substantive Nouns expressing the Action of the Verb in general, or in the Abstract. GERUNDS are Substantives of the second Declension, and complete in all their Cases, except the Vocative. SUPINES are Substantives of the fourth Declension, having only two Cases, the Accusative in UM, which makes the First Supine, and the Ablative in U, which makes the Second.

[Vossius, Lib. 8. Cap. 54. thinks that the Last Supine may sometimes be a Dative; as, Durum tactu, i. e. tactui; For the Datives of the Fourth Declension of old ended in u. Also Lib. 7. Cap. 8. he takes Notice that tho' these Supines have sometimes other Cases, (as irrisui esse) yet they are only reckoned Supines by Grammarians, when the First come after Verbs of Motion, and the Second after Adjective Nouns: Thus dignus irrisu is a Supine (according to them) Non sine irrisu audientium, is not.]

De Indeclinabilibus Partibus Orationis. C A P. V. De Adverbio.	Of the Indeclinable Parts of Speech. C H A P. V. Of Adverb.

IN ADVERBIO potissimum spectanda est ejus Significatio.

Adverbiorum Significationes variae sunt: earum verò præcipuæ ad sequentia capita revocari possunt.

IN an ADVERB is chiefly to be considered its Signification.

The Significations of Adverbs are various: But the chief of them may be reduced to the following Heads.

ADVERB is an indeclinable Part of Speech, which being joined to a Noun, Verb, or other Adverb, expresses some Circumstance, Quality, or Manner of their Signification.

I. Adverbs denoting CIRCUMSTANCE, are chiefly those of Place and Order.

Rudiments of the Latin Tongue,

ABSOLUTE, denoting,

COMPARATIVE denoting,

1. QUALITY simply; as, Bene, well; male, ill; fortiter, bravely; And innumerable others that come from Adjective Nouns or Participles.
2. CERTAINTY; as, Profecto, certè, sanè, planè, nã, utique, ita, etiam, truly, verily, yes; quidni, why not? omnino, certainly.
3. CONTINGENCE; as, Forte, forsan, fortassis, fors, happily, perhaps, by chance, peradventure.

6. SWEARING; as, Hercle, pol, edepol, mecastor, by Hercules, by Polux, &c.
7. EXPLAINING; as, Utpote, videlicet, scilicet, nimirum, nempe, to wit, namely.
8. SEPARATION; as, Scorsum, apart; separatim, separately; sigillatim, one by one; viritim, Man by Man; oppidatim, Town by Town, &c.
9. JOINING TOGETHER; as, Simul, unà, pariter, together; generaliter, generally; universaliter, universally; plerumque, for the most part.
10. INDICATION or POINTING OUT; as, En, ecce, lo, behold.
11. INTERROGATION; as, Cur, quare, quamobrem, why, wherefore? Num, an, whether? Quomodo, quò, how? To which add, Ubi, quo, quorsum, unde, qua, quando, quamdiu, quoties.
1. EXCESS; as, Valde, maxime, magnopere, summo, admodum, oppido, perquam, longe, very much, exceedingly; nimis, nimium, too much; prorsus, penitus, omnino, altogether, wholly; magis, more; melius, better; pejus, worse; fortius, more bravely: And opposite, best; pessime, worst; fortissime, most bravely; and innumerable others of the Comparative and Superlative Degrees.
2. DEFECT; as, Ferme, serè, propè, propemodum, penè, almost; parum, little; paulo, paullulum, very little.
3. PREFERENCE; as, potius, satius, rather; potissimum, præcipue, præsertim, chiefly, especially; imò, yes, nay, nay rather.
4. LIKENESS or EQUALITY; as, Ita, sic, adeo, sè; ut, uti, sicut, sicuti, velut, veluti, ceu, tanquam, quasi, as, as if; quemadmodum, even as; satis, enough; itidem, in like Manner.
5. UNLIKENESS or INEQUALITY; as, Aliter, secus, otherwise; alioqui or alioquin, else; nedum, much more or much less.
6. ABATEMENT; as, Sensim, paullatim, pedetentim, by Degrees, piece meal; vix, scarcely; ægre, hardly, with Difficulty.
7. EXCLUSION; as, Tantum, solum, modò, tantummodo, duntaxat, demum, only.

NOTE, 1. That ADVERBS seem originally to have been contrived to express compendiously in one Word what must otherwise have required two or more; as, Sapienter, wisely, for cum sapientia; hic, for in hoc loco; semper, for in omni tempore; semel, for una vice; bis, for duabus vicibus; Hercule, for Hercules me juvet, &c. Therefore many of them are nothing else but Adjective Nouns or Pronouns, having the Preposition and Substantive understood; as, quò, ed, eodem; for ad qua, ea, eadem [loca]; or cui, ei, eidem, [loco]; for of old these Datives ended in e. Thus, qua, hac, illac, &c. are plain Adjectives in the Abl. sing. femin. the Word via, a Way, and in, being understood. Many of them are Compounds; as, quomodo, i. e. quo modo; quemadmodum, i. e. ad quem modum; quamobrem, i. e. ob quam rem; quare, i. e. [pro] qua re; quorsum, i. e. versus quem [locum]; scilicet, i. e. scire licet; videlicet, i. e. videre licet; ilicet, i. e. ire licet; illico, i. e. in loco; magnopere, i. e. magno opere; nimirum, i. e. ni [est] mirum, &c.

NOTE, 2. That of Adverbs of Place, these of the First Kind answer to the Question ubi? the Second to quo? the Third to quorsum? the Fourth to unde? and the Fifth to qua? To which might be added a Sixth, quousque, How far? answered by Usque, until; Hucusque, Hitherto; Eousque, so far; Hactenus, hitherto, thus far; Eatenus, so far as; Quadantenus, in some Measure. But these are equally applied to Place and Time.

NOTE, 3. That Adverbs of Time of the First Kind answer to quando? of the Second to quandiu and quamdudum or quampriem? of the Third to quoties?

NOTE, 4. That Adverbs of Quality generally answer to the Question quomodo?

NOTE, 5. That some Adverbs of Time, Place, and Order, are frequently used the one for the other; as Ubi, where and when; inde from that Place, from that Time, thereafter, next; hactenus thus far, with respect to Place, Time or Order, &c. Other Adverbs also may be classed under different Heads.

NOTE, 6. That some Adverbs of Time are either past, present or future; as, Jam, already, now, by and by; Olîm, long ago, sometime hereafter.

NOTE, 7. That Interrogative Adverbs of Time and Place, doubled or with the Adjection cunque answer to the English Adjection soever; as, ubiubi, or ubicunque, wheresoever; quoquo or quocunque, whithersoever, &c. And the same holds also in other Interrogative Words; as, quisquis, or quicunque, whosoever; quotquot, or quotcunque, how many soever; quantus quantus, or quantuscunque, how great soever; qualis qualis or qualicunque, of what Kind or Quality soever; ut ut, or utcunque, however, or howsoever, &c.

In,	In, into.
Sub,	Under.

III. These four govern sometimes the Accusative, and sometimes the Ablative.

Super,	Above.
Subter,	Beneath.

A PREPOSITION is an indeclinable Word, shewing the Relation of one Substantive Noun to another.

NOTE, That Pone and Secus rarely occur: and Prope, nigh; Usque, unto; Circiter, about; Versus, towards; which are commonly reckoned among the Prepositions governing the Accusative; and Procul, far, among those governing the Ablative, are Adverbs; and do not govern a Case of themselves, but by the Preposition ad, which is understood to the first four, and a or ab to the last. To which perhaps may be added Clam, which is joined very frequently with the Accusative; as, Clam patre, or patrem; a being understood to the one, and quod ad to the other.

Besides the separate Use of these PREPOSITIONS, there is another Use arises from them, namely, their being put before a vast Number of Nouns, and Verbs in Composition, which creates a great Variety, and gives a peculiar Elegance and Beauty to the Latin Tongue.

68 Rudiments of the Latin Tongue.

There are five or six Syllables, viz. AM, DI or DIS, RE, SE, CON, which are commonly called Inseparable Prepositions, because they are only to be found in compound Words: However they generally add something to the Signification of the Words with which they are compounded; thus,

Am,	}	}	signifies	{	round about,	}	as,	{	ambio,	}	to surround.
Di,
Dis,
Re,
Se,
Con,
									divello,		to pull asunder.
									distraho,		to draw asunder.
									relego,		to read again.
									sepono,		to lay aside.
									concreasco,		to grow together.

C H A P. VII.

Of Interjection.

AN INTERJECTION is an indeclinable Word thrown into Discourse, to signify some Passion or Emotion of the Mind.

- Some of them express,
1. JOY; as, Evax, hey, brave, io.
 2. GRIEF; as, Ah, hei, heu, cheu, ah, alas, woe me.
 3. WONDER; as, Papæ, O strange; Vah, bah.
 4. PRAISE; as, Euge, well done.
 5. AVERSION; as, Apage, away, begone, fy, tush.
 6. EXCLAIMING; as, Oh, proh, O.
 7. SURPRISE or FEAR; as, Atat, ha, aba,
 8. IMPRECATION; as, Væ, woe, pox on't.
 9. LAUGHTER; as, Ha, ha, he.
 10. SILENCING; as, Au, 'st, pax, silence, hush, 'st.
 11. CALLING; as, Eho, io, ho, sô ho, bo, O.
 12. DERISION; as, Hui, away with.
 13. ATTENTION; as, Hem, bah.

NOTE, 1. That the same Interjection denotes sometimes one Passion and sometimes another; as, Vah, which is used to express Joy and Sorrow and Wonder, &c.

NOTE, 2. That some of them are natural Sounds common to all Languages.

NOTE, 3. That Nouns are used sometimes for Interjections; as, Malam! With a Pox! With a Mischievous! Infandum! O shame! fy, fy! Miserum! O wretched! Nefas! O the Villany!

INTERJECTION is a compendious Way of expressing a whole Sentence in one Word, and used only to represent the Passions and Emotions of the Soul, that the Shortness of the one might the sooner express the Suddenness and Quickness of the other.

C H A P. VIII.

Of Conjunction.

A CONJUNCTION is an indeclinable Word that joins Sentences together; and thereby shews their Dependence upon one another.

Of these some are called,

1. COPULATIVE; as, Et, ac, atque, que, and; etiam, quoque, item, also; cum, tum, both, and. Also their Contraries, Nec, neque, neu, nevc, neither, nor.
2. DISJUNCTIVE; as, Aut, ve, vel, seu, five, either, or.
3. CONCESSIVE; as, Etsi, etiamsi, tametsi, licet, quanquam, quamvis, tho', altho', albeit.
4. ADVERSATIVE; as, Sed, verum, autem, at, ast, atqui, but; tamen, attamen, veruntamen, verumenimvero, yet, notwithstanding, nevertheless.
5. CAUSAL; as, Nam, namque, enim, for; quia, quippe, quoniam, because; quod, that, because.
6. ILLATIVE or RATIONAL; as, Ergo, ideo, igitur, idcirco, itaque, therefore; quapropter, quocirca, wherefore; proinde, therefore; cum, quum, seeing, since; quandoquidem, forasmuchas.
7. FINAL or PERFECTIVE; as, Ut, uti, that, to the end that.
8. CONDITIONAL; as, Si, sin, if; dum, modo, dummodo, provided, upon Condition that; siquidem, if indeed.
9. EXCEPTIVE or RESTRICTIVE; as, Ni, nisi, unless, except.
10. DIMINUTIVE; as, Saltem, certe, at least.
11. SUSPENSIVE or DUBITATIVE; as, An, anne, num, whether; ne, annon, whether, not; necne, or not.
12. EXPLETIVE; as, Autem, vero, now, truly; quidem, equidem, indeed.
13. ORDINATIVE; as, Deinde, thereafter; denique, finally; insuper, moreover; cæterum, moreover, but, however.
14. DECLARATIVE; as, Videlicet, scilicet, nempe, nimirum, &c. to wit, namely.

NOTE, 1. That the same Words, as they are taken in different Views, are both Adverbs and Conjunctions; as, An, anne, &c. are Suspensive Conjunctions and Interrogative Adverbs. The same may be said of the Ordinative and Declarative Conjunctions, which under another View may be ranked under Adverbs of Order and Explaining. So likewise Utinam, which is commonly called an Adverb of Wishing, when more narrowly considered, is nothing else but the Conjunction Uti [that] with the Syllable nam added to it, and opto [I wish] understood; as, Utinam adfuisse; Ut te Deus male perdat; supple Opto. But since both of them are indeclinable, there is no great Need of being very nice in distinguishing them.

NOTE, 2. That other Parts of Speech compounded together, supply the Place of Conjunctions; as, Postea, afterwards; præterea, moreover; propterea, because, &c. Which are made up of the Prepositions post, præter, and propter, with ea the Pronoun.

NOTE, 3. That some Conjunctions, according to their natural ORDER, stand first in a Sentence; as, Et, aut, nec, si, &c. Some contrary to their natural Order, stand in the second Place, viz. autem, vero, quoque, quidem, enim: And some may indifferently be put either first or second, viz. Namque, etenim, siquidem, ergo, igitur, itaque, &c. Hence arose the Division of them into Prepositive, Subjunctive and Common.

¶ C H A P. IX.

APPENDIX, containing some Observations concerning the various Divisions and Significations of Words, especially Noun and Verb.

1. ALL Words whatsoever are either Simple or Compound. A SIMPLE Word [Simplex] is that which was never more than one; as, Justus, lego. A COMPOUND [Compositum] is that which is made up of two or more Words, or of a Word and some Syllabical Adjection; as, Injustus, perlego, derelinquo, egomet.

2. All Words whatsoever are either Primitive or Derivative. A PRIMITIVE Word [Primitivum] is that which comes from no other Word; as, Justus, lego. A DERIVATIVE [Derivativum] is that which comes from another Word; as Justitia, lectio.

I. Besides the more general Divisions of Nouns and Pronouns, mentioned p. 5 and 22. there are other particular Divisions of them taken from their various Significations and Derivations: The most remarkable whereof are these;

I. With respect to Signification.

1. A COLLECTIVE [Collectivum] is a Substantive Noun which signifies many in the singular Number; as, Populus, a People; exercitus, an Army.

2. An INTERROGATIVE Noun or Pronoun [Interrogativum] is that by which we ask a Question; as, Quis? Who? Uter? Which of the two? Qualis? Of what Kind? Quantus? How great? Quot? How many? And these, when they are used without a Question, are called INDEFINITES.

3. A RELATIVE Noun or Pronoun [Relativum] is an Adjective that has respect to something spoken before; as, Qui, ille, ipse, &c. Alius, alter, reliquus, cetera, -um, qualis, quantus, &c.

4. PARTITIVE Noun or Pronoun [Partitivum] is an Adjective which signifies many severally, and as it were one by one; as, Omnis, nullus, quisque, &c. or a Part of many; as, Quidam, aliquis, neuter, nemo, &c.

5. A NUMERAL Noun [Numerale] is an Adjective which signifies Number, (of which there are four principal Kinds:)

(1.) CARDINAL, [Numerus Cardinalis]; as, Unus, duo, tres, &c.

(2.) ORDINAL, [Ordinalis]; as, Primus, secundus, tertius, &c.

(3.) DISTRIBUTIVE, [Distributivus]; as Singuli, bini, terni, &c.

(4.) MULTIPLICATIVE, [Multiplicativus]; as, Simplex, duplex, triplex, &c.

II. With respect to Signification and Derivation.

1. A PATRONYMICK Noun [Patronymicum] is a Substantive Noun derived from another Substantive proper, signifying one's Pedigree or Extraction; as, Priamides, the Son of Priamus; Priamis, the Daughter of Priamus; Æetias, the Daughter of Æetes; Nerine, the Daughter of Nereus. Patronymicks are generally derived from the Name of the Father, but the Poets (for others seldom use them) derive them also from the Grandfather, or some other remarkable Person of the Family; nay sometimes from the Founder of a Nation or People, and also from Countries and Cities; as, Æacides, the Son, Grandson, Great-grandson, or one of the Posterity of Æacus; Romalida, the Romans from their first King Romulus; Sicetis, Troas,

1. Woman of Sicily, of Troy, &c. Patronymicks of Men end in des; of Women in is, as, and ne. These in des and ne are of the First, and these in is and as of the Third Declension.

2. An ABSTRACT Noun [Abstractum] is a Substantive derived from an Adjective expressing the Quality of that Adjective in general, without regard to the thing in which the Quality is: as, Bonitas, Goodness; Dulcedo, Sweetness; from bonus, good; dulcis, sweet. With respect to these Abstracts, the Adjectives from which they come are called CONCRETES, because, besides the Quality, they also confusedly signify something as the Subject of it, without which they cannot make Sense.

3. A GENTILE or PATRIAL Noun [Gentile or Patrium] is an Adjective derived from a Substantive proper, signifying one's Country; as Scotus, Macedo, Arpinas, Edinburgensis, Taodunanus; a Man born in Scotland, Macedonia, Arpinum, Edinburgh, Dundee; from Scotia, Macedonia, Arpinum, Edinburgum, Taodunum.

4. A POSSESSIVE Noun [Possessivum] is an Adjective derived from a Substantive whether Proper or Appellative, signifying Possession or Property; as, Scoticus, Herculeus, Paternus, Herilis, Fæmineus, of or belonging to Scotland, Hercules, a Father, a Master, a Woman; from Scotia, Hercules, Pater, Herus, Fæmina.

5. A DIMINUTIVE Noun [Diminutivum] is a Substantive or Adjective derived from another Substantive or Adjective respectively, importing a Diminution or lessening of its Signification; as, Libellus, a little Book; Chartula, a little Paper; Opusculum, a little Work; from liber, charta, opus; Parvulus, very little; Candidulus, pretty white; from parvus, candidus. These for the most part end in lus, la, or lum, and are generally of the same Gender with their Primitives.

6. A DENOMINATIVE Noun [Denominativum] is a Substantive or Adjective derived from another Noun; as, Gratia, Favour; Vinea, a Vineyard; Senator, a Senator; from gratus, vinum, senex: Cælestis, heavenly; Humanus, humane; Aureus, golden; from cælum, homo, aurum.

7. A VERBAL Noun [Verbale] is a Substantive or Adjective derived from a Verb; as, Amor, Love; Doctrina, Learning; Lectio, a Lesson; Auditus, Hearing; from Amo, docco, lego, audio; Amabilis, lovely; Capax, capable; Volucer, swift; from Amo, capio, volo.

8. Lastly, There are some Nouns derived from Participles, Adverbs and Prepositions; as, Fictitius, counterfeit; Craftinus, belonging to the Morrow; Contrarius, contrary; from Fictus, cras, contra.

NOTE, That the same Nouns, according to the different Respects in which they are considered, may sometimes be ranked under one, and sometimes under another of the above mentioned Classes; as, Quis is an Interrogative, Relative or Partitive; Pietas, an Abstract or Denominative.

II. Pronouns are divided into four Classes, viz.

1. DEMONSTRATIVES, Ego, tu, sui.

2. RELATIVES, Ille, ipse, iste, hic, is, quis, qui.

3. POSSESSIVES, Meus, tuus, suus, noſter, veſter.

4. PATRIALS or GENTILES, Noſtras, veſtras, cujas.

Of them also two are INTERROGATIVES, Quis and cujas.

III. 1. Verbs with respect to their Figure or Frame, are either SIMPLE; as, Amo, I love: Or, COMPOUND; as, Redamo, I love again.

2. With

2. With respect to their Species or Origin, are either PRIMITIVE; as, Lego, I read: or DERIVATIVE; as, Lectito, I read frequently.

3. With respect to their Conjugation, are either REGULAR; as, Amo: or IRREGULAR; as, Volo, vis, &c.

4. With respect to their Constituent Parts, are either COMPLETE; as Amo: or DEFECTIVE; as, Inquam: or REDUNDANT; as, Edo, edis, & es, &c.

5. With respect to their Persons, are either PERSONAL; as, Amo; or IMPERSONAL; as, Ponit.

6. With respect to their Terminations, they end either in O; as, Amo: or in R; as, Amor: or in M; as, Sum.

7. With respect to their Signification, Verbs are either Substantive or Adjective.

(1.) A SUBSTANTIVE Verb [Substantivum] is that which signifies simply the Affirmation of Being or Existence; as, Sum, sis, existo, I am.

(2.) An ADJECTIVE Verb [Adjectivum] is that which, together with the Signification of Being, has a particular Signification of its own; as, Amo: i. e. Sum amans, I am loving.

An Adjective Verb is divided into Active, Passive and Neuter.

[1.] An ACTIVE Verb [Activum] is that which affirms Action of its Person or Nominative before it; as, Amo, loquor, curro.

[2.] A PASSIVE Verb [Passivum] is that which affirms Passion of its Person or Nominative before it; as, Amor.

[3.] A NEUTER Verb [Neutrum] is that which affirms neither Action nor Passion of its Nominative; but simply signifies the State, Posture, or Quality of Things; as, Sto, sedeo, maneo, duro, virco, flaveo, sapio, quiesco, &c. To stand, sit, stay, endure, to be green, to be yellow, to be wise, to rest.

An Active Verb is again divided into Transitive and Intransitive.

[1.] An Active TRANSITIVE Verb [Transitivum] is that whose Action passeth from the Agent to some other Thing; as, Amo patrem.

[2.] An Active INTRANSITIVE Verb [Intransitivum] is that whose Action passeth not from the Agent to any other; as, curro, I run; ambulo, I walk.

When to any Verb you put the Question WHOM? or WHAT? if a rational Answer can be returned, the Verb is Transitive; as, Whom or What do you teach? Answ. A Boy, the Grammar; If not, it is Intransitive: as, What do you run, go, come, live, sleep, &c. To which no rational Answer can be given, unless it be by a Word of like Signification, which sometimes indeed these Verbs have after them; as, Vivo vitam jucundam, I live a pleasant Life; Eo iter longum, I go a long Journey.

NOTE, 1. That the same Verb is sometimes Transitive, and sometimes Intransitive; as, Ver incipit, the Spring begins, Cic. Incipere facinus, to begin an Action, Plant.

NOTE, 2. That Neuter and Intransitive Verbs are often englished with the Sign of a passive Verb; as, Caleo, I am hot; Paleo, I am pale; Jacobus abiit, James is gone.

NOTE, 3. That Neuter and Intransitive Verbs want the Passive Voice, unless impersonally used, as the Intransitive Verbs most frequently and elegantly are; as, pugnatur, itur, venturum est.

Tho' all Verbs whatsoever, with respect to their Signification, belong to some one or other of the foregoing Classes; yet because Grammarians together gether with the Signification of Verbs, are obliged also to consider their Termination, and finding that all Active Verbs did not end in o, neither all Passives in or, it was judged convenient to add to the former two or three other Classes or Kinds of them, viz. Deponent, Common, and Neuter-passive.

[1.] A DEPONENT Verb [Deponens] is that which has a Passive Termination, but an Active or Neuter Signification; as, Loquor, I speak; morior, I die.

[2.] A COMMON Verb [Commune] is that which under a Passive Termination has a Signification either Active or Passive; as, Criminor, I accuse, or I am accused; Dignor, I think, or I am thought worthy.

[3.] A NEUTER PASSIVE [Neutro-passivum] is that which is half Active and half Passive in its Termination, but in its Signification is either wholly Passive; as, Fio, factus sum, To be made. Or wholly Active or Neuter; as, Audeo, ausus sum, To dare; gaudeo, gavisus sum, to rejoice.

8. To omit the other Kind of Derivative Verbs, which are not very material, there are three Kinds of them derived from Verbs, which deserve to be remarked, viz. Frequentatives, Inceptives, and Desideratives.

[1.] FREQUENTATIVES [Verba frequentativa] signify Frequency of Action. They are formed from the last Supine by changing atu into ito from Verbs of the first, and u into o from Verbs of the other three Conjugations. They are all of the first; as, Clamito, to cry frequently, from clamo; dormito, to sleep often, from dormio. From them also are formed other Frequentatives; as, curro, curso, curso; jacio, jacto, jactito; pello, pulso, pulsito, and pulto.

[2.] INCEPTIVES [verba inceptiva] signify that a Thing is begun and tending to Perfection. They are formed from the Second Person Sing. Pres. Ind. by adding co. They are all of the Third Conjugation, and want both Preterite and Supine; as, Caleo, cales, calesco, I grow or wax warm.

[3.] DESIDERATIVES [Verba desiderativa] signify a Desire of Action. They are formed from the last Supine by adding rio. They are all of the Fourth Conjugation, and generally want both Preterite and Supine; as, Cenaturio, I desire to sup; Esurio, I am hungry, or I desire to eat.

9. Lastly, In Construction, Verbs receive Names from their more particular Significations; as, Vocative Verbs, or Verbs of naming, Verbs of remembering, of want, of teaching, of accusing, &c.

In the preceding Division of Verbs, with respect to their Signification, I have receded a little from the common Method; and in particular I have given a different Account of Neuter Verbs from that commonly received by Grammarians, who comprise under them all Intransitive Verbs, tho' their Significations be never so much Active. But this I did partly from the Reason of the Name, which imports a Negation both of Action and Passion, and partly to give a distinct View of the Significations of Verbs without regard to their Terminations, which in that respect are purely accidental and arbitrary.

I have also excluded from the Divisions of Verbs those called NEUTRAL PASSIVES [Lat. Neutra-passiva] because originally they are Active Verbs; for the primary Signification of vapulo is pereo or ploro; of exulo, extra solum eo; of veneo, venum eo; of nubo, velo. Liceo indeed is a very singular Verb, for in the Active voice it signifies passively, and in the Passive, actively.

De Syntaxi, sive Con- structione.

SYNTAXIS est recta vocum in Oratione Compositio.

Ejus partes sunt duæ, Concordantia & Regimen (b).

C H A P. I.
Of Syntar, or Construction.

SYNTAX is the right Ordering of Words in Speech.

Its Parts are two, Concord and Government.

Con-

(a) We are now arrived at the principal Part of Grammar; for the great End of Speech being to convey our Thoughts unto others, it will be of little Use to us to have a Stock of Words, and to know what Changes can be made upon them, unless we can also apply them to Practice, and make them answer the great Purposes for which they are intended. To the Attainment of this End there are two things absolutely necessary, viz. I. That in Speech we dispose and frame our Words according to the Laws and Rules established among those whose Language we speak. II. That in like Manner we know what is spoken and written, and be able to explain it in due Order, and resolve it into the several Parts of which it is made up. The first of these is called SYNTAX or CONSTRUCTION, and the second is named EXPOSITION or RESOLUTION. The first shews us how to speak the Language ourselves, and the second how to understand it when spoken by others. But it must be owned that there is such a necessary Connection between them, that he that is Master of the first cannot be ignorant of the second.

(b) NOTE, 1. That the Difference between Concord and Government consists chiefly in this, that in Concord there can no Change be made in the Accidents, that is, Gender, Case, Number or Person of the one, but the like Change must also be made in the other: But in Government, the first Word (declinable) may be changed, without any Change in the second. In Concord the first Word may be called the Word directing, and the second the Concordantia est quando una dictio concordat cum altera in quibusdam accidentibus.

Regimen est quando dictio regit certum casum.

Concord is when one Word agrees with another in some Accidents.

Government is when a Word governs a certain Case.

I. De Concordantia.

Concordantia est quadruplex,

1. Adjectivi cum Substantivo.

2. Verbi cum Nominativo.

3. Relativi cum Antecedente.

4. Substantivi cum Substantivo.

REGULA I.

Adjectivum concordat cum Substantivo in genere, numero & casu; ut,

^a Vir ^b bonus.

^a Fœmina ^b casta.

^b Dulce ^a pomum.

I. Of Concord.

Concord is fourfold,

1. Of an Adjective with a Substantive.

2. Of a Verb with a Nominative.

3. Of a Relative with an Antecedent.

4. Of a Substantive with a Substantive.

RULE I.

An Adjective agrees with a Substantive in Gender, Number and Case; as,

A good Man.

A chaste Woman.

A sweet Apple.

Word directed: In Government the first is called the Word governing, and the second the Word governed.

NOTE, 2. That for the greater Ease both of Master and Scholar, we have noted these Words wherein the Force of each Example lieth, with the Letters [^a] and [^b]; the Word Directing or Governing with [^a], and the Word Directed or Governed with [^b]; or where there are two Words Directing or Governing, the first with [^a], and the second with [^{aa}]; and where two Words Directed or Governed, the first with [^b] and the second with [^{bb}].

Number. 1. NOTE, 1. That the Way to find out the Substantive is to ask the Question WHO or WHAT? to the Adjective; for that which answers to it is the Substantive. And the same Question put to the Verb or Relative, discovers the Nominative or Antecedent.

NOTE, 2. That another Adjective sometimes supplies the Place of a Substantive; as Amicus certus, a sure Friend; Bona ferina, Good Venison, Homo being understood to Amicus, and Caro to Ferina.

NOTE, 3. That the Substantive THING [Negotium] is most frequently understood; and then the Adjective is always put in the Neuter Gender, as if it were a Substantive; as, Triste [supple Negotium] i. e. Res tristis, A sad Thing. Bona, [supple Negotia] i. e. Res bone, Good Things.

Num. 2. NOTE, That the Infinitive Mood frequently supplies the Place of the Nominative; as, Mentiri non est meum, To lie is not mine, [or my Property.]

Num. 3. 1. Substantive Verbs are Sum, fio, form and existo.

2. Verbs of Naming are these Passives, Appellor, dicor, vocor, nominor, nuncupor; to which add, Videor, existimor, creor, constituor, salutor, designor, &c.

3. Verbs of Gesture are, Ego, incedo, venio, cubo, sto, sedeo, evado, fugio, dormio, somnio, maueo, &c.

NOTE, That any Verb may have after it the Nominative when it belongs to the same thing with the Nominative before it; as Audivi hoc puer, I heard it being, [or when I was] a Boy. Defendi rem publicam adolescens, non deseram senex, I defended the Common Wealth [when I was] a young Man, I will not desert [now that I am] old, Cic.

Num. 4. NOTE, That when the Particle THAT [in Lat. QUOD, or UT] comes between two Verbs, it is elegantly left out, by turning the Nominative Case into the Accusative, and the Verb into the Infinitive Mood; as Aiunt regem adventare, They say [that] the King is coming; rather than Aiunt quod rex adventat. Turpe est eos qui bene nati sunt turpiter vivere. 'Tis a shameful thing that they who are well born should live basely; rather than, Ut ii turpiter vivant. See p. 43.

3. ¶ ESSE hath the same Case after it that it hath before it; as,

I know that Peter is a learned Man.

I am not allowed to be negligent.

R U L E III.

THE Relative Qui, quæ, quod, agrees with the Antecedent in Gender and Number; as,

He is a wise Man who speaks little.

I. If no Nominative comes between the Relative and the Verb, the Relative shall be the Nominative to the Verb; as,

Præ-

Num. 5. NOTE, 1. That we frequently say, Licet nobis esse bonos; We may be good. Tibi expedit esse sedulum, 'Tis expedient for you to be diligent. Nemini unquam nocuit fuisse pium, It never hurted any Man that he hath been pious: But then the Accusative, Nos, te, illum, &c. is understood; thus, Licet nobis [nos] esse bonos, &c.

NOTE, 2. That if Esse, and the other Infinitives of Substantive Verbs, Verbs of Naming, &c. have no Accusative or Dative before them, the Word that follows (whether Substantive or Adjective) is to be put in the Nominative; as, Dicitur esse vir, He is said to be a Man. Non videtur esse facturus, He seems not about to do it. Nemo debet dici beatus ante suum obitum, No Man should be called happy before his Death.

Num. 6. NOTE, 1. That the Antecedent is a Substantive Noun that goes before the Relative, and is again understood to the Relative. Wherefore it will not be amiss to teach the Scholar to supply it every Where; thus, Beware of Idleness, which [Idleness] is an Enemy to Virtue, Cave segnitiam, quæ [segnities] est inimica virtuti. Nay Cicero himself, but especially Caesar, frequently repeat the Substantive; as, In oppidum perfugisti, quo in oppido, &c. You fled to a Town, in which Town, Cic. Diem dicunt, quo die ad ripam Rhodani conveniant, They appoint a Day, on which Day they should meet upon the Bank of the River Rhodane, &c.

NOTE, 2. That when the Relative respects a whole Sentence, it is put in the Neuter Gender; as, Joannes mortuus est, quod mihi summo dolori est, John is dead, which is a great Grief to me.

NOTE, 3. That the Person of the Relative is always the same with that of its Antecedent; as, Ego qui doceo, I who teach. Tu qui discis, You who learn. Lectio quæ docetur, the Lesson which is taught, Præceptor ^a qui ^b docet.

8 2. At si interveniat Nominativus inter Relativum & Verbum, Relativum erit ejus casus quem Verbum aut Nomen sequens, vel Præpositio præcedens regere solent; ut, Deus ^b quem ^a colimus.

^b Cujus ^a munere vivimus.

^b Cui nullus est ^a similis.

^a A ^b quo facta sunt omnia.

The Master who teacheth.

2. But if a Nominative comes between the Relative and the Verb, the Relative shall be of that Case, which the Verb or Noun following, or the Preposition going before use to govern; as, God whom we worship. By whose Gift we live. To whom there is none like. By whom all things were made.

ANNOTATIO.

9 ¶ Duo vel plura Substantiva singularia Conjunctione [&, ac, atque, &c.] copulata, habent Adjectivum, Verbum vel Relativum plurale; ut,

^a Petrus & ^{aa} Joannes ^b qui

^b sunt ^b docti.

Two or more Substantives singular coupled together with a Conjunction [&, ac, atque, &c.] have a Verb, Adjective, or Relative plural; as,

Peter and John who are learned.

R E G.

Num. 9. NOTE, 1. That when the Substantives are of different Genders, the Adjective or Relative plural must agree with the Masculine rather than the Feminine or Neuter; as, Pater & mater qui sunt mortui, The Father and Mother who are dead.

EXCEP. But if the Substantives signify things without Life, the Adjective, or Relative plural, must be put in the Neuter Gender; as, Divitia, decus, gloria in oculis sita sunt, Riches, Honour and Glory are set before your Eyes.

NOTE, 2. That when two or more Nominatives are of different Persons, the Verb plural must agree with the First Person rather than the Second; and the Second rather than the Third; as, Si tu & Tullia valetis, ego & Cicero valemus, If you and Tullia are well, I and Cicero are well.

NOTE, 3. That the Adjective or Verb frequently agree with the Substantive or Nominative that is nearest them, and are understood to the rest; as, Et ego in culpa sum & tu, Both I and you are in the Fault: Or, Et ego & tu es in culpa. Nihil hic deest nisi carmina, There is nothing here wanting but Charms; or, Nihil hic nisi carmina desunt. This Manner of Construction is most usual, when the different Words signify one and the same thing, or much to the same Purpose; as, Mens, ratio, & consilium in senibus est, Understanding, Reason and Prudence is in old Men.

NOTE, 4. That Collective Nouns, because they are equivalent to a Plural Number, have sometimes the Adjective or Verb in the Plural Number; as, Pars virgis casti, A Part of them were scourged. Turba ruunt, The Crowd rush.

R E G. IV.

UNUM Substantivum concordat cum alio eandem rem significante in casu; ut,

But this ought not to be made a principal Rule; for the Responsive, or the Word that answers the Question, does not depend upon the Interrogative, but upon the Verb, or some other Word joined with it; which, because spoken immediately before, is generally understood in the Answer; thus, Quis dedit tibi pecuniam? Pater [dedit mihi pecuniam]. Quo cares? [Careo] libro.

NOTE, 2. That when there are two Substantives of different Genders, the Partitive, &c. rather agrees with the first than the last; as, Indus fluminum maximus, Cic. Leo animalium fortissimus, Plin. Otherwise it is of the same Gender with the Substantive it governs; as, Pauca animalium, Unaquæque seminarum.

NOTE, 2. That some comprehend Opus and Usus, when they signify Necessity, under this Rule, as, Quid opus est verbis? What Need is there of Words? Ovid. Nunc viribus usus, Now there is Need of Strength, Virg.
 But it is to be remarked that these are Substantive Nouns, the very same with Opus, operis, a Work, and Usus, usus, Use; and have the Ablative after them, because of the Preposition IN, which is understood. Sometimes Opus hath the Nominative by Num. 3. as, Dux nobis opus est, We stand in Need of a Leader. It is elegantly joined with the Participle Perfect; as, Consulto, maturato, invento, facto, &c. opus est, We must advise, make haste,

Num. 42. NOTE, That this Genitive is frequently turned into the Infinitive; as, Pœnitet me peccasse; Tædet me vivere; and so they fall in with the following Rule, a Delectat b me bb studere. I delight to study.

§ 4. Con-

Num. 52. Add to these the Gerunds of Fungor, fruor and potior.

These Participles in DUS are commonly called GERUNDIVES.

NOTE, 1. That the Substantive must always be of the same Case that the Gerund was of.

NOTE 2. That because of its noisy Sound, the Gerund in di is seldom changed into the Genitive Plural; but either the Accusative is retained; as Studio patres vestros videndi, rather than Patrum vestrorum videndorum; or it is turned into the Genitive Plural, without changing the Gerund; as, patrum vestrorum videndi studio. Thus Valla and Farnabius; but see my Gram. maj. vol. 2. p. 276.

Num. 53. The Supine in UM is elegantly used with the Verb Eo when we signify that one sets himself about the doing of a Thing; as, In mea vita tu laudemis questum? Are you going to advance your Reputation at the Hazard of my Life? Ter. And this is the Reason why this Supine with eri taken impersonally, supplies the Place of the Future of the Infin. Pass.

Some general Remarks on the Construction of Participles, Gerunds and Supines.

NOTE, 1. That Participles, Gerunds and Supines have a twofold Construction; one as they partake of the Nature of Verbs, by which they govern a certain Case after them; another as they partake of the Nature of Nouns, and consequently are subject to the same Rules with them; Thus,

1. A Participle is always an Adjective agreeing with its Subst. by Num. 1.

2. A Gerund is a Substantive and construed as follows; (1.) That in dum of the Nominative by Num. 2. Of the Accus. by Num. 68. (2.) That in di by Num. 11. or 14. (3.) That in do of the Dat. by Num. 16. of the Ablat. by Num. 69. 71. or 55.

3. A Supine is also a Substantive, (1.) That in um, governed by ad understood, by Num. 68. (2.) That in u governed by in understood, by Num. 71.

NOTE, 2. That the Present of the Infinitive Active, the first Supine and the Gerund in dum with the Preposition ad, are thus distinguished: The Supine is used after Verbs of Motion; The Infinitive after any other Verbs; The Gerund in dum with ad after Adjective Nouns. But these last are frequently to be met with after Verbs of Motion; and Poets use also the Infinitive after Adjectives.

NOTE, 3. That the Present of the Infinitive Passive and the last Supine, are distinguished: The Supine hath always an Adjective before it; the Infinitive hath not, unless (as I said) among Poets.

§ 2. The Construction of Circumstances (a).

1. The Cause, Manner, and Instrument.

R U L E XII.

T HE Cause Manner and Instrument are put in the Ablative; as,
 I am pale for Fear.
 He did it after his own Way.
 I write with a Pen.

2. Place.

R U L E XIII.

T HE Name of a Town is put in the Genitive, nitivo,

(a) Adjective Nouns, but especially Verbs, have frequently some CIRCUMSTANCES going along with them in Discourse; the most considerable whereof, with respect to Construction, are these five. 1. The Cause or Reason why any Thing is done. 2. The Way or Manner how it is done. 3. The Instrument or Thing wherewith it is done. 4. The Place where. And 5. The Time when it is done.

Num. 55. NOTE, 1. That the Cause is known by the Question CUR or QUARE? Why? Wherefore? &c. The MANNER by the Question QUOMODO? How? And the INSTRUMENT by the Question QUOCUM Wherewith?

NOTE, 2. That the Preposition is frequently express'd with the Cause and Manner; as, Pra gaudio, For Joy. Propter amorem, For Love. Ob culpam, For a Fault. Cum summo labore, With great Labour. Per dedecus, With Disgrace. But the Preposition [CUM] is never added to the Instrument: For we cannot say, Scribo cum calamo; Cum oculis vidi.

NOTE, 3. But here we must carefully distinguish between the Instrument, and what is called the Ablativus Comitatus, or Ablative of Concomitancy, i. e. signifying that something was in Company with another; for then the Preposition [CUM] is generally express'd; as, Ingressus est cum gladio, He entered with a Sword, i. e. Having a Sword with him or about him.

NOTE, 4. That to Cause some refer the Matter of which any Thing is made; as, Clypeus aere fabricatus, A Shield made of Brass; But (except with the Poets) the Preposition is for the most part express'd.

NOTE, 5. That to Manner some refer the Adjunct, i. e. something joined to another Thing; as, Terra amœna floribus, A Land pleasant with Flowers. Mons nive candidus, A Hill white with Snow.

NOTE, 6. That to Instrument some refer Conficior dolore, inedia, &c. Prosequor odio, amore, &c. Afficio te honore, contumelia, &c. Lasso verbis asperis, &c.

- nitivo, cùm quæstio fit per a Mortuus est b Londini.

- 57 * EXCEP. Si verò sit ter-tiæ Declinationis, aut Pluralis numeri, in Ablativo effec-tur; ut,
a Habitat b Carthagine.
a Studuit b Parisiis.
- 58 * 2. Cùm quæstio fit per QUO, nomen oppidi in Accusativo regitur; ut, a Venit b Edinburgum.
a Profectus est b Athenas.
- 59 * 3. Si quærat per UN-
DE vel QUA, nomen oppidi ponitur in Ablativo; ut, a Discessit b Aberdonia.
b Laodicea iter a faciebat.
- 60 * 4. Domus & Rus eodem
 modo quo oppidorum nomi-
 na construuntur; ut, Manet domi, He stays at home. Domum revertitur, He returns home. Domo arcessitus sum, I am called from home.
Vivit rure or ruri. Abiit rus. Rediit rure.
- 61 5. Nominibus regionum, provinciarum, & aliorum locorum, non dictis, Præpositio ferè additur; ut,
UBI? Natus in Scotia, in Fisa, in urbe, &c.
QUO? Abiit in Scotiam, in Fisam, in [vel ad] urbem, &c.
UNDE? Rediit e Scotia, e Fisa, ex Urbe, &c.
QUA? Transit per Scotiam, per Fisam, per urbem, &c.
- when the Question is made by
UBI, [Where] as,
 He lived at Rome.
 He died at London.
EXCEP. But if it is of the third Declension, or of the Plural Number, it is express in the Ablative; as,
 He dwells at Carthage.
 He studied at Paris.
 2. When the Question is made by QUO, [Whither] the Name of a Town is governed in the Accusative; as,
 He came to Edinburgh.
 He went to Athens.
 3. If the Question is made by
UNDE, [Whence] or QUA,
 [by, or through what Place]
 the Name of a Town is put in the Ablative; as,
 He went from Aberdeen.
 He went through Laodicea.
 4. Domus and Rus are construed the same Way as Names of Towns; as,

A N N O.

Num. 56, &c. NOTE, 1. That the Preposition is frequently added to Names of Towns, (especially when the Question is Quo? Unde? or Qua?) and sometimes omitted to Names of Countries, Provinces, &c.

ANNOTATIO.

* Distantia unius loci ab alio ponitur in Accusativo, inter-dum & in Ablativo; ut,

Glasgwa ^a distat Edinburgo triginta ^b millia passuum;
^b Iter vel ^b itinere unius diei.

3. Tempus.

R E G. XIV.

* 1. TEMPUS ponitur in Ablativo, cùm quæstio fit per QUANDO; ut,

^a Venit ^b hora tertia.

* 2. Cùm quæstio fit per QUAMDIU, tempus ponitur in Accusativo vel Ablativo; sed sæpius Accusativo; ut,

^a Mansit paucos ^b dies.
Sex ^b mensibus ^a absuit.

The Distance of one Place 62 from another is put in the Accusative, and sometimes in the Ablative; as,

Glasgow is thirty Miles distant from Edinburgh;
One Day's Journey.

3. Time.

R U L E XIV.

* 1. TIME is put in the Ab-63
lative, when the Question is made by QUANDO,
[When;] as,

He came at three o'Clock.

2. When the Question is 64 made by QUAMDIU, [How long] Time is put in the Accusative or Ablative, but oftner in the Accusative; as,

He staid a few Days.

He was away six Months.

De

NOTE, 2. That Humi, Militia and Belli are also used in the Genitive when the Question is made by Ubi? as, Procumbit humi, He lies down on the Ground. Domi mililitæque unâ fuimus, We were together both at home and abroad, or in Peace and War, Ter. Belli domique agitabatur, Was managed both in Peace and War, Sallust.

NOTE, 3. That when the Name of a Town is put in the Genitive, in urbe is understood, and therefore we cannot say, Natus est Romæ urbis nobilis, but urbe nobilis.

¶ These Rules concerning Names of Towns may be thus exprest,

The Name of { IN or AT a Town after { TO or UNTO } is put { Gen. or Abl. †
FROM or THROUGH } in the { Accusative.
Ablative.

† i. e. When it is of the third Declension, or of the Plural Number. But when AT signifies about or near a Place, we make use of the Preposition ad; as, Bellum quod ad Trojam gesserat, Virg.

Num. 63 and 64. These two Rules may be thus exprest;

1. Nouns that denote a precise TERM of TIME are put in the Ablative

2. Nouns that denote CONTINUANCE of Time are put in the Accusative or Ablative.

De Ablativo absoluto.

R E G. XV.

65* SUBSTANTIVUM

cum Participio, quorum Casus a nulla alia dictione pendet, ponuntur in Ablativo absoluto; ut,

^a Sole ^b oriente fugiunt tenebræ.

^a Opere ^b peracto ludemus.

III. Constructio Vocum Indeclinabilium.

I. Adverbiorum.

66* I. ADVERBIA quædam temporis,

Of the Ablative absolute.

R U L E XV.

A SUBSTANTIVE with a Participle, whose Case depends upon no other Word, are put in the Ablative absolute; as,

The Sun rising [or while the Sun riseth] Darkness flies away.

Our Work being finished [or when our Work is finished] we will play.

III. The Construction of Words Indeclinable.

I. Adverbs.

I. SOME Adverbs of Time, Place and loci

Num. 65. NOTE, 1. This Ablative is called ABSOLUTE or Independent, because it is not directed or determined by any other Word; for if the Substantive (which is principally to be regarded) hath a Word before, that should govern it, or a Verb coming after, to which it should be a Nominative, then the Rule does not take Place.

NOTE, 2. That Having, Being, or a Word ending in ing, are the ordinary Signs of this Ablative.

NOTE, 3. That (to prevent our mistaking the true Substantive) when a Participle perfect is englished by HAVING, we are carefully to advert whether it is Passive or Deponent. If it is Passive, we are to change it into BEING, its true English. If it is Deponent, there needs no Change, for HAVING is the proper English of it. The Use of this Note will appear by the following Example.

James having said these Things, departed. } Jacobus hæc locutus abiit. Dep.

James, these Things being said, departed. } Jacobus his dictis abiit. Pass.

A great Reward being promised. } Magnâ mercede promissâ. Pass.

NOTE, 4. That when there is no Participle express in Latin, existente [being] is understood; as, Me puero, I being a Boy. Saturno Rege, Saturn being King. Civitate nondum liberâ, The State not being yet free.

NOTE, 5. That the Participle may be resolved into Dum, cum, quando, si, postquam, &c. [While, seeing, when, if, after] with the Verb, either in English or Latin.

loci & Quantitatis regunt Genitivum; ut,

- a Pridie illius b diei.
- a Ubique b gentium.
- a Satis est b verborum.

* 2. Quædam Adverbia derivata regunt Casum primitivorum; ut,

- b Omnium a elegantissime loquitur.

Vivere a convenienter b naturæ.

2. Præpositionum.

1. PRÆPOSITIONES

Ad, apud, ante, &c.

Accusativum regunt; ut,

- a Ad b patrem.

2. Præpositiones A, ab, abs, &c. regunt Ablativum; ut,

- a A b patre.

3. Præpositiones In, sub, super & subter, regunt Accusativum cum motus ad locum significatur; ut,

- Eo* a in b scholam.

a Sub b mania tendit, Virg.

Incidit a super b agmina, Id.

Ducit a subter b fastigia tecti, Id.

¶ At si motus vel quies in loco significetur, In & sub regunt Ablativum; Super & subter vel Accusativum vel Ablativum; ut, Sedeo vel discuro a in b schola.

Recubo vel ambulo a sub b umbra.

Sedens a super b arma, Virg.

b Fronde a super viridi, Id.

Quantity governs the Genitive; as,

The Day before that Day.

Every where.

There's enough of Words.

2. Some Derivative Adverbs govern the Case of their Primitives; as,

He speaks the most elegantly of all.

To live agreeably to Nature.

2. Of Prepositions.

1. THE Prepositions Ad, 68

apud, ante, &c. govern the Accusative; as,

To the Father.

2. The Prepositions A, ab, abs, &c. govern the Ablative; as,

From the Father.

3. The Prepositions In, sub, super and subter, govern the Accusative when Motion to a Place is signified; as,

I go into the School.

He goes under the Walls.

It fell upon the Troops.

He brings [him] under the Roof of the House.

¶ But if Motion or Rest in a Place be signified, In and sub govern the Ablative; Super and subter either the Accusative or Ablative; as,

I sit or run up and down in the School.

I ly or walk under the Shadow.

Sitting above the Arms.

Upon the green Grass.

Venæ ^a subter ^b cutem disperse, Plin.

^a Subter ^b littore, Catull.

72 4. ¶ Præpositio in compositione eundem sæpe casum regit quem extra; ut.

^a Adeamus ^b scholam.

^a Exeamus ^b schola.

The Veins dispersed under the Skin.

Beneath the Shore.

4. ¶ A Præpositio oftentimes governs the same Case in Composition that it does without it; as,

Let us go to the School.

Let us go out of the School.

3. Inter-

¶ The Prepositions, with the Cases they govern, are contained in these Verses:

1. Hæ quantum adsciscunt casum sibi præposituræ;
Ad, penes, adversum, cis, citra, adversus, & extra,
Ultra, post, præter, juxta, per, pone, secundum,
Erga, apud, ante, secus, trans, super, propter, & intra,
Quæis addas contra, circum, circa, inter, ob, infra.
2. Hæ sextum poscunt; A, cum, tenus, abs, ab, & absque,
Atque palam, pro, præ, clam, de, e, ex, sine, coram.
3. Sub, super, in, subter, quantum sextumque requirunt.

NOTE, 1. That Versus and Usque are put after their Cases; as, Italiam versus, Towards Italy; Oceanum usque, As far as the Ocean. But (as we have already observed, Page 67.) these are properly Adverbs, the Præposition AD being understood.

NOTE, 2. That Tenus is also put after its Case; as, Mento tenus, Up to the Chin.

NOTE, 3. That Tenus governs the Genitive Plural, 1. When the Word wants the Singular; as, Cumarum tenus, As far as [the Town] Cuma. 2. When we speak of Things of which we have naturally but two; as, Crurum tenus, Up to the Legs.

NOTE, 4. That A and E are put before Consonants, Ab and Ex before Vowels and Consonants; Abs before t and q.

NOTE, 5. That subter hath very rarely the Ablat. and only among Poets.

NOTE, 6. That in English IN is commonly the Sign of the Ablative, INTO of the accusative.

NOTE, 7. IN for erga, contra, per, supra, ad, &c. governs the Accus. as, Amor in patriam. Quid ego in te commisi? Crescit in dies singulos. Imperium regum in proprios greges, Horat. Pisces in cœnam empti. But IN for inter governs the ablative; as, In amicis habere, Sallust.

SUB for circa governs the Accusat. as, Sub cœnam.

SUPER for ultra, præter and inter, governs the Accusat. as, Super Garumantas, Virg. Super gratiam suam, Sallust. In sermone super cœnam nato, Suet. For de it governs the Ablat. as, Super hac re nimis, Cic.

Num. 72. NOTE, That this Rule only takes Place when the Præposition may be dissolved from the Verb, and put before the Case by itself; as, Alloquor patrem, i. e. Loquor ad patrem. And even then the Præposition is frequently repeated; as, Exire è finibus suis, Cæs.

3. Interjectionum.

* I. INTERJECTIONES
O, heu, & pro, regunt Vocativum, interdum Accusativum; ut,

^a O formose ^b puer.

^a Heu ^b me miserum!

* 2. Hei & Væ regunt Dativum; ut,

^a Hei ^b mihi!

^a Væ ^b vobis.

4. Conjunctionum.

* I. CONJUNCTIONES
Et, ac, atque, nec, neque, aut, vel, & quædam alia, connedunt similes Casus & Modos; ut, Honora ^b patrem ^a & ^b matrem.

Nec ^b scribit, ^a nec ^b legit.

2. Ut, quo, licet, ne, utinam & dummodo Subjunctivo Modo ferè semper adhærent; ut, Lego ^a ut ^b discam.

^a Utinam ^b sapires.

3. Of Interjections.

I. THE Interjections O, 73
Heu and Proh, govern the Vocative, and sometimes the Accusative; as,

O fair Boy.

Ah Wretch that I am!

2. Hei and Væ govern the Dative; as,

Ah me!

Woe to you.

4. Of Conjunctions.

I. THE Conjunctions Et, 75
ac, atque, nec, neque, aut, vel, and some others, couple like Cases and Moods; as,

Honour your Father and Mother.

He neither writes nor reads.

2. Ut, quo, licet, ne, utinam and dummodo are for the most part joined with the Subjunctive Mood; as,

I read that I may learn.

I wish you were wise.

N 2

SYN-

Num. 75. To these add Quam, nisi, præterquam, an, and Adverbs of Likeness. The Reason of this Construction is because the Words so coupled depend all upon the same Word, which is express to one of them and understood to the other.

Numb. 76. To these add all indefinite Words, that is, Interrogatives, whether Noun, Pronouns, Adverbs or Conjunctions, when taken in a doubtful or indefinite Sense; such as, Quis, uter, quantus, &c. Ubi, quo, unde, &c. Cur, quare, quomobrem, num, an, anne, &c. (See Page 65 and 70.) They generally become Indefinites, when another Word comes before them in the Sentence, such as, Scio, nescio, video, intelligo, dubito, and the like; as, Ubi est frater tuus? Nescio ubi sit. An venturus est? Dubito an venturus sit.

NE the Adverb of Forbidding requires the Imperative or Subjunctive; as, Ne time, or ne timeas. See Page 47.

Dum, quam, quod, si, sin, ni, nisi, etsi, etiamsi, priusquam, simulac, siquidem, quandoquidem, &c. are joined sometimes with the Indicative, and sometimes with the Subjunctive.

EXPLANATION.

ALL Construction is either TRUE or APPARENT, or (as Grammarians express it) JUST or FIGURATIVE. TRUE Construction is founded upon the essential Properties of Words, and is almost the same in all Languages. APPARENT Construction entirely depends upon Custom, which either for Elegance or Dispatch, leaves out a great many Words otherwise necessary to make a Sentence perfectly full and Grammatical. The first is comprised in these few Fundamental Rules, and more fully branched out in the Larger Syntax. The other is also interspersed thro' the Larger Syntax, but distinguished from that which is True by an Asterisk.

The Cases mentioned in the Rules of the Larger Syntax immediately discover the Rules of this Summary to which they respectively belong; these that are True without any Ellipsis; these that are Figurative by having their Ellipsis supplied as follows, as they are numbered in the Margin.

To RULE II. are reduced Numb. 13. supple negotium. Numb. 14 and 47. sup. de causa, gratia, or in re, negotio. Numb. 15. sup. è numero. Numb. 21. sup. de negotio. Numb. 22 and 23. sup. officium, negotium, &c. Numb. 24. sup. 1. sat, taken from the Verb. 2. de causa, &c. Numb. 29. sup. memoriam, notitiam, verba, &c. Numb. 30. sup. de crimine, pœna, &c. Numb. 35. and 36. sup. pro re, or pretio aris. Numb. 40. sup. inter negotia, and res [fert] se ad negotia. Numb. 42. sup. res, negotium, &c. Numb. 56. sup. in urbe. Numb. 60. Domus, sup. in adibus. Numb. 66. these Adverbs seem to be taken for Substantive Nouns.

To RULE III. is reduced Numb. 73. sup. malum est; or these Interjections are used as Substantives.

TO RULE IV. belong Numb. 18, 53 and 62. sup. ad. Numb. 33. sup. quod ad. Numb. 41. i. e. Est inter mea negotia; Refert [or res fert] se ad mea negotia, &c. Numb. 58. sup. ad or in, Numb. 64. sup. per. Numb. 73. sup. sentio, lugeo, &c.

TO RULE VI. belong Numb. 12. sup. e, ex, or cum. Numb. 19. sup. pra. Numb. 20. sup. de, e, ex, cum, &c. Numb. 21. sup. a, ab, &c.

Numb. 34. sup. pro. Numb. 37, 38. sup. a, ab, de, e, ex. Numb. 51 and 55. sup. pra, cum, a, ab, e, ex, &c. Numb. 54. sup. in or de. Numb. 57. sup. in. Numb. 59. sup. a, ab, e, ex. Numb. 62. sup. in. Numb. 64. sup. in or pro. Numb. 65. sup. sub, cum, a, ab.

NOTE, 1. That under Verbs must also be comprehended Participles, Gerunds and Supines, because the general Signification of Verb is included in them.

NOTE, 2. That as a Consequence of this, a learned Grammarian ingeniously supposes that the Dative and Infinitive are always governed by a Verb, and that when they seem to be governed by a Noun, the Participle existens is understood; as, Utilis [existens] bello. Pollio praesidium [existens] reis. Dignus [existens] amari.

NOTE, 3. That the Vocative is properly no Part of a Sentence, but the Case by which we excite one to hear or execute what we say. Therefore when the Vocative is put before the Imperative, as frequently happens, the Nominative TU or VOS is understood; and that even tho' these Words be already express in the Vocative; as, Tu Jacobe lege, i. e. O tu Jacobe, tu lege.

NOTE, 4. That the Vocative is sufficient to itself, and does not necessarily require the Interjection O. See Vossius, Lib. VII. Cap. 69. and Sanctius, Lib. IV. de Ellipsi Verb. Audio & Narro.

C H A P. II.

Of Exposition or Resolution.

EXPOSITION or RESOLUTION is the unfolding of a Sentence, and placing all the Parts of it, whether express or understood, in their proper Order, that the true Sense and Meaning of it may appear.

1. A SENTENCE is either Simple or Compound.

1. A SIMPLE Sentence is that which hath one Finite Verb in it.

2. A COMPOUND Sentence is that which hath two or more such Verbs in it joined together by some Couples.

These COUPLES are of four Sorts, 1. The Relative QUI. 2. Some Comparative Words, such as, tantus, quantus; talis, qualis; tam, quam, &c.

3. Indefinite Words, [See Page 70 and 99.] 4. Conjunctions.

In a Simple Sentence there are two Things to be considered, 1. Its Essential. 2. Its Accidental Parts.

1. The Essential Parts of a Sentence are a Nominative and a Verb.

2. The Accidental Parts are of four Kinds, 1. Such as excite Attention, as the Vocative and exciting Particles; as, O, en, ecce, heus, &c. 2. Such as serve to introduce a Sentence, or to shew its Dependence upon what was said before; as, Jam, haftenus, quandoquidem, cum, dum, interea, &c. 3. Adjectives, Adverbs and Prepositions, with their Cases. Sometimes a Part of a compound Sentence supplies the Place of those two last kinds of Words.

II. The ORDER of Words in a Sentence is either Natural or Artificial.

1. NATURAL Order is when the Words of a Sentence naturally follow one after another, in the same Order with the Conceptions of our Minds.

ARTIFICIAL Order is when Words are so ranged as to render them most agreeable to the Ear; but so as the Sense be not thereby obscured.

III. A Sentence may be resolved from the Artificial into the Natural Order by the following Rules:

1. Take the Vocative, Exciting and Introductory Words where they are found.

2. The NOMINATIVE.

3. Words limiting or explaining it, i. e. Words agreeing with, or governed by it, or by another successively (till you come to the Verb) where they are found.

4. The VERB.

5. Words limiting or explaining it, &c. where they are found, to the End of the Sentence.

6. Supply every where the Words that are understood.

7. If the Sentence is compound, take the Parts of it severally, as they depend upon one another, proceeding with each of them as before.

Vale igitur, mi Cicero, tuique persuade esse te quidem mihi carissimum; sed multo fore cariorem, si talibus monumentis preceptisque latere. Cic. Off. lib. 3.

Farewel then my [Son] Cicero, and assure yourself that you are indeed very dear unto me; but shall be much dearer, if you shall take Delight in such Writings and Instructions.

This Compound Sentence is resolved into these five Simple Sentences.

1. Igitur mi [fili] Cicero, [tu] vale, 2. & [tu] persuade tibi te esse quidem carissimum [filium] mihi; 3. sed [tu persuade tibi te] fore cariorem [filium mihi in] multo [negotio] 4. si (tu) latere talibus monumentis, 5. & (si tu latere talibus) preceptis.

NOTE, 1. That Interrogative Words stand always first in a Sentence, unless a Preposition comes before them.

NOTE, 2. That Negative Words stand immediately before the Verb.

NOTE, 3. That Relatives are placed before the Word by which they are governed, unless it is a Preposition.

NOTE, 4. That the Subjunctive Mood is used in Compound Sentences.

NOTE, 5. That the Parts of a Compound Sentence are separated from one another by these Marks called INTERPUNCTIONS. 1. These that are smaller, named Clauses, by this Mark (,) called a Comma. 2. These that are greater, named Members, by this Mark (:) called Colon, or this (;) called a Semicolon. 3. When a Sentence is thrown in that hath little or no Connexion with the rest, it is inclosed within what we call a Parenthesis marked thus ().

But when the Sentence, whether Simple or Compound, is fully ended, if it is a plain Affirmation or Negation, it is closed with this Mark (.) called a Point. If a Question is asked, with this Mark (?) called a Point of Interrogation. If Wonder or some other sudden Passion is signified, with this Mark (!) called a Point of Admiration.

GULIELMI LILII Monita pædagogica; si- ve Carmen de Moribus ad suos Discipulos.

QUI mihi discipulus, puer, es, cupis atque doceri,
 Huc ades, hæc animo concipe dicta tuo.
 Manè citus lectum fuge, mollem discute somnum;
 Tempa petas supplex, & venerare Deum.
 Attamen in primis facies sit lota manusque;
 Sint nitidæ vestes, comptaque cæsaries.
 Desidiam fugiens, cum te schola nostra vocarit,
 Adsis; nulla pigræ sit tibi causa moræ.

Me Præceptorem cùm videris ore saluta,
Et condiscipulos ordine quosque tuos.
Tu quoque fac sed eas, ubi te sedisse jubemus :
Inque loco, nisi sis jussus abire, mane.
Ac magis ut quisque est doctrinæ munere clarus,
Hoc magis is clara sede locandus erit.
Scalpellum, calami, atramentum, charta, libelli,
Sint semper studiis arma parata tuis.
Si quid dictabo, scribes ; at singula rectè :
Nec macula, aut scriptis menda sit ulla tuis.
Sed tua nec laceris dictata aut carmina chartis
Mandes, quæ libris inseruisse decet.
Sæpe recognoscas tibi lecta, animoque revolvās :
Si dubites, nunc hos consule, nunc alios.
Qui dubitat, qui sæpe rogat, mea dicta tenebit ;
Is qui nil dubitat, nil capit inde boni.
Disce, puer, quæso ; noli dediscere quicquam :
Ne mens te infimulet conscia desidæ.
Sisque animo attentus : quid enim docuisse juvabit,
Si mea non firmo pectore verba premas ?
Nil tam difficile est quod non solertia vincat :
Invigila, & parta est gloria militiæ.
Nam veluti flores tellus, nec semina profert,
Ni sit continuo victa labore manûs.
Sic puer, ingenium si non exercitet, ipsum,
Tempus & amittit, spem simul ingenii.
Est etiam semper lex in sermone tenenda,
Ne nos offendat improba garrulitas.
Incumbens studio, submissa voce loqueris ;
Nobis dum reddis, voce canorus eris.
Et quæcunque mihi reddes, discantur ad unguem ;
Singula & abjecto verbula redde libro.
Nec verbum quisquam dicturo suggerat ullum ;
Quod puero exitium non mediocre parit.
Si quicquam rogo, sic respondere studebis,
Ut laudem dictis & mereare decus.
Non linguâ celeri nimis, aut laudabere tardâ ;
Est virtus medium, quod tenuisse juvat.
Et quoties loqueris, memor esto loquare Latine ;
Et veluti scopulos barbara verba fuge.
Præterea socios, quoties te cunque rogabunt,
Instrue ; & ignaros ad mea vota trahe.

6 GVL. LILII Carmen, &c.

Qui docet indoctos, licet indoctissimus esset,
 Ipse brevi reliquis doctior esse queat.
 Sed tu nec stolidos imitabere Grammaticastros,
 Ingens Romani dedecus eloquii :
 Quorum tam fatuus nemo, aut tam barbarus ore est,
 Quem non auctorem barbara turba probet.
 Grammaticas rectè si vis cognoscere leges,
 Discere si cupias cultiùs ore loqui :
 Addiscas veterum clarissima scripta virorum,
 Et quos auctores turba Latina docet.
 Nunc te Virgilius, nunc ipse Terentius optat,
 Nunc simul amplecti te Ciceronis opus :
 Quos qui non didicit, nil præter somnia vidit,
 Certat & in tenebris vivere Cimмериis.
 Sunt quos delectat (studio virtutis honestæ Posthabito) nugis tempora conterere :
 Sunt quibus est cordi, manibus, pedibusve sodales,
 Aut alio quovis sollicitare modo :
 Est alius, qui se dum clarum sanguine jactat,
 Insulso reliquis improbat ore genus.
 Te tam prava sequi nolim vestigia morum :
 Ne tandem factis præmia digna feras.
 Nil dabis, aut vendes, nil permutabis emesve,
 Ex damno alterius commoda nulla feres.
 Insuper & nummos, irritamenta malorum,
 Mitte aliis ; puerum nil nisi pura decent.
 Clamor, rixa, joci, mendacia, furta, cachinni,
 Sint procul à vobis ; Martis & arma procul.
 Nil penitus dices, quòd turpe, aut non sit honestum :
 Est vitæ ac pariter janua lingua necis.
 Ingens crede nefas cuiquam maledicta referre,
 Jurare aut magni nomina sacra Dei.
 Denique servabis res omnes atque libellos,
 Et tecum quoties isque redisque, feres.
 Effuge vel causas faciunt quæcunque nocentem,
 In quibus & nobis displicuisse potes.

Cumque mones aliquem, nec se velit ipse moneri,
 Si tibi sit charus, noli desistere cœptis.

Stulti verbis non vincuntur.

Contra verbosos noli contendere verbis :

Rumores fuge, ne incipias novus auctor haberi :
Nam nulli tacuisse nocet, nocet esse locutum.

Fides aliena non promittenda.

Rem tibi promissam certò promittere noli :
Rara fides ideo est, quia multi multa loquuntur.

Judex quisque sit sui.

Cùm te aliquis laudat, judex tuus esse memento :
Plus aliis de te, quàm tu tibi credere noli.

Beneficiorum ratio.

Culpata non faciendæ.

Quæ culpæ soles, ea tu ne feceris ipse :
Turpe est doctori cum culpa redarguit ipsum.

Concedenda petendæ.

Quod iustum est petito, vel quod videatur honestum :
Nam stultum est petere id quod possit jure negari.

Nota ignotis non commutandæ.

DECALOGUS, sive LEX DEI.

Loquutus est DEUS omnia verba hæc. Exod. xx.

EGO sum Dominus Deus tuus, qui eduxi te ex Ægypto, à domo servitutis;

I. Non habebis deos alienos in conspectu meo.

II. Ne sculpas tibi simulacrum, nec ullam imaginem effingas eorum, quæ aut supra sunt in cœlo, aut infra in terra, aut in aquis sub terra: neque incurves te. illis, neque colas ea. Ego enim sum Dominus Deus tuus, fortis, zelotes, vindicans peccata patrum in filios, idque in tertia & quarta progenie eorum qui oderunt me, & misericordiâ utens in millesimam eorum qui diligunt me, & observant præcepta mea.

III. Ne usurpes nomen Domini Dei tui temere. Neque enim Dominus dimittet eum impunitum, qui nomen ejus vanè usurpaverit.

IV. Memento diem Sabbati sanctifices. Sex diebus operaberis, & facies omne opus tuum. At septimo die Sabbatum erit Domino Deo tuo. Non facies ullum opus, nec tu, nec filius tuus, nec filia tua, nec servus tuus, nec ancilla tua, nec jumentum tuum, nec advena qui est intra portas tuas. Nam sex diebus fecit Deus cœlum, terram, & mare, & quæcunque in iis sunt: requievit autem die septimo, ideoque benedixit diei Sabbati, & sanctificavit eum.

V. Honora patrem tuum, & matrem tuam, ut diu vivas in terra, quam tibi Dominus Deus tuus daturus est.

VI. Non occides.

VII. Non committes adulterium.

VIII. Non furaberis.

IX. Non dices contra proximum tuum falsum testimonium.

X. Non concupisces domum proximi tui, non concupisces uxorem proximi tui, nec servum ejus, nec ancillam, nec bovem; nec asinum, nec quicquam eorum quæ sunt proximi tui.

SUMMA LEGIS, Matth. xxii. 34.

Pharisei, quum audivissent quòd JESUS silentium imposuisset Sadducæis, congregati sunt pariter: 35. Et interrogavit eum unus ex iis qui erat legis peritus, tentans eum, & dicens, 36. Præceptor, Quod præceptum maximum est in lege?

37. JESUS autem dixit illi, Ut diligas Dominum Deum tuum, ex toto corde tuo, & ex tota anima tuâ, & ex omni cogitatione tua. 38. Hoc est præceptum maximum & primum. 39. Secundum autem est simile illi: nempe, Ut diligas proximum tuum sicut te ipsum.

40. Ex his duobus præceptis pendent Lex & Prophetæ.

INSTITUTIO BAPTISMI:

Cujus hæc sunt Verba. Matth. xxviii. 19. Mar. xvi. 15.

ITe & docete omnes gentes, baptizantes eos, In nomine Patris, & Filii, & Spiritus Sancti. Qui crediderit, & baptizatus fuerit, servabitur: Qui non crediderit, condemnabitur. Et docete eos, ut custodiant quicquid mandavi vobis: & ecce ego vobiscum sum omnibus diebus usque ad consummationem seculi.

Hæc promissio repetitur, cum Scriptura Baptisum nominat Lavacrum regenerationis, & ablutionem peccatorum. Tit. iii. 5. Act. xxii. 16.

INSTITUTIO COENÆ DOMINI:

Cujus hæc sunt verba. 1 Cor. xi. 23.

EGo enim accepi à Domino nostro id quod tradidi vobis: Quòd Dominus noster Jesus Christus eà nocte quâ proditus est, accepit panem: & gratias actis, fregit, ac dixit: Accipite, manducate, hoc est corpus meum, quod pro vobis frangitur: Hoc facite ad memoriam mei. Idem & poculum, postquam cœnasset, dicendo: Hoc poculum est novum illud fœdus per meum sanguinem: Hoc facite, quotiescunque biberitis, in mei recordationem. Quotiescunque enim ederitis panem hunc, & poculum hoc biberitis, mortem Domini annuntiabitis, usque quò venerit. Itaque quisquis ederit panem hunc, vel biberit poculum Domini indignè, reus est corporis & sanguinis Domini. Probet autem quisque se ipsum, & ita de pane illo edat, & de poculo illo bibat. Nam qui edit & bibit indignè, damnationem sibi ipsi edit & bibit, quia non decernit corpus Domini.

Hæc promissio à Paulo exprimitur, cum inquit:

Poculum gratiarum actionis, quo gratias agimus, nonne communio est sanguinis Christi? Panis quem frangimus, nonne communio est corporis Christi? Quoniam unus panis, unum corpus, multi sumus. Nam omnes unius panis participes sumus,

Two Prayers to be taught unto Children at School, with a Form of blessing God before and after Meat.

Morning Prayer.

O GOD, I praise thee for the Creation of the World, and for the Redemption of Mankind by the Lord Jesus, and for thy many Favours bestowed on me: Thou didst safely take me from the Womb, and hast ever since cared for me; Thou hast by thy Mercy caused me to be born within thy Church, where I was early given to thee in Baptism; Thou hast afforded me the Means of Grace, and called me to the Hope of Glory.

But O most merciful Father, I a poor and miserable Sinner, conceived in Sin, and brought forth in Iniquity, have gone astray from thee; I have not cared to know thee, and to do thy Will, but have done my own Will, and followed my foolish and sinful Inclinations, and do therefore deserve thy Wrath and Curse. O Lord have Mercy upon me, turn me unto thee, and grant me Repentance and Forgiveness of all my Sins for Jesus Sake. Let it from henceforth become my chiefest Care to please thee, and to seek thy Kingdom and Righteousness. Work in me a true Faith, a lively Hope, and a fervent Charity; make me humble, meek, patient, sober and just and loving to all Men, submissive and obedient to them that are over me, and well content and thankful in every Condition of Life; grant that I may daily grow in knowing, loving, fearing and obeying thee; create in me a clean Heart, O God, and renew a right Spirit within me.

I thank thee, O Lord, for the Care of me this Night, watch over me this Day; keep me mindful that I am always in thy Sight, that I may be in thy Fear all the Day long: And grant that through the whole Course of my Life I may be holy and harmless in all Manner of Conversation, that when this short and frail Life is at an End, I may be made partaker of everlasting Life, through the Merits of Jesus Christ our Lord, in whose Name and Words I pray, Our Father which art in Heaven, &c.

Evening Prayer.

Most gracious God, what shall I render unto thee for thy many and great Benefits bestowed upon me; tho' I have been an undutiful and disobedient Servant unto thee. Thou hast continued thy Care and Kindness for me ever since I was born, and hast preserved me this Day; let me never forget thy Goodness, but grant that thereby I may be led to Repentance and Amendment of Life. Preserve me from every thing that is displeasing to thee. O Lord keep me from cursing, swearing and lying, from Pride, Stubbornness and Idleness. Work in me an utter Dislike of all Uneleanness, of Gluttony and Drunkenness, of all Malice and Envy, of Strife and Contention, of Deceit and Covetousness. Give me Grace to deny all Ungodliness and worldly Lusts, and to live godly, righteously and soberly in this present World. Cause me to understand and consider the Laws and Life of Jesus, that I may do his Will and follow his Steps. Let never the Cares of this Life, nor the Love of Riches, nor evil Company, nor the corrupt Custom of the World, withdraw me from the Obedience of thy Laws; but strengthen and establish me by thy holy Spirit, that I may live and die thy faithful Servant.

O Lord send thy Gospel through the World; pour out plenteously the Spirit of Truth, Holiness and Peace on all People: Bless the Church and Kingdom: Preserve the King and all the Royal Family: Guide our Judges and Magistrates, sanctify and assist the Ministers of the Gospel: Visit all that are in Trouble, and sanctify their Afflictions to them: Be gracious unto all my Kindred, Friends and Neighbours; and bless and forgive all mine Enemies.

Lord watch over me this Night, and keep me ever mindful that I am shortly to die and come to Judgment, that I may without Delay turn to thee, and pass the Time of my sojourning here in thy Fear. Good Lord hear me, and grant these my Desires, and what else thou knowest to be needful for me, for the Sake of Jesus, in whose Name and Words I pray, Our Father, &c.

Grace before Meat.

O Lord be merciful unto us, and pardon our Sins; sanctify these thy good Benefits, that we by the sober and thankful Use of them, may be enabled for thy Service, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour, Amen.

Grace after Meat.

WE thank and praise thee, O Lord, the Giver of all Good, who hast at this Time fed our Bodies; stir up in us a greater Care for our Souls; and grant that our short Lives, which are so carefully sustained by thy Bounty, may be spent in doing thy Will. Lead us safely through this vain and sinful World, in which we are Pilgrims and Strangers, and at length bring us to everlasting Rest, through Jesus Christ, Amen.
